National League Park, Philadelphia, October 9.—Confidence stimulated by yesterday's victory was apparent in the camp of the Philadelphia Nationals today when they entered the second game of the series which will settle the baseball championship of the world.

The Boston Americans were undisputed by their defeat.

Weather conditions were greatly improved and the playing field was in excellent shape.

What little betting there is on the series still favors the Bostonians, but would-be betters are reluctant to give the odds of 3 to 2 and 5 to 3 demanded by the Philadelphia backers.

The news that nearly 700 bleacher seats were unoccupied during yesterday's game because fans had despaired of securing admittance caused thousands to flock to the grounds today, and there was a rush for the dollar seats.

A long line had stood all night waiting for the gates to open at 10 a. m.

Thousands came early to the park and by noon the backfield seats were filled and the crowd still coming and pressing for admission. Reserved stands filled slowly. Hundreds came early today to see President Wilson and his party on their arrival. The presidential box, near the Boston players' bench, off third base, glowed with red, white and blue bunting and small American flags.

President Wilson and Mrs. Galt were given a continuous ovation upon their arrival. President Baker of the Philadelphia club, officially welcomed President Wilson who was then given a new ball to throw to the players. Meanwhile the Philadelphia who with the Boston players had grouped themselves in front of the president's box took their positions on the field. Two score of moving picture men and photographers had arranged themselves in front of the president's box.

First Inning — President Wilson threw out the ball to pitcher Mayer. Hooper walked, Mayer's curve breaking wide of the plate. Scott fouled out to Luderus, trying to bunt. Mayer tried to pick off Hooper at first. Speaker shot a terrific liner to right for a base, Hooper going to third. Speaker was out stealin, Burns to Niehoff, but on the return throw to the plate Burns dropped and Hooper scoring Boston's first run. Hoblitzell singled to center, but was out stealbot fanned. Mayer was given a big hand as he walked to the home bench. No runs, no hits, no errors. Niehoff fanned. Burns was out. Hoblitzell to Foster. Mayer got a good hand as he came to the plate but he fell a victim on strikes. It was Foster's fifth strikeout. All during the innings he kept the ball on the inside corner of the plate. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning — Speaker fled out to Bancroft. Hoblitzell went out to Luderus unassisted but Lewis got a single over second which Niehoff was just able to knock down. Lewis out-guessed Mayer on a pitchout, but Gardner went out on a fly to Whitted who had to make a hard run to make the catch. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The stands started a cheer to rattle Foster as Stock came to bat but the latter was out on short fly to Speaker who made the catch after a hard run. Bancroft went out, Hoblitzell to Foster. Paskert was out on a long fly to Hooper. Not a hit had been made off Foster during the first four innings. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Fifth Inning — Barry went out, Stock to Luderus. It was a smart stop by Stock and President Wilson clapped his hands. Thomas went out Stock to Luderus. Foster poled a double against the right field fence, the first extra base hit of the series. Hooper was purposely passed by Mayer and Scott fled to Whitted. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Cravath doubled to left and the crowd howled. It was the Philadelphia's first hit. Cravath scored when Luderus doubled to right center. Whitted went out, Scott to Hoblitzell and Luderus went to third. Niehoff line fled to Hoblitzell and Burns fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning — Speaker popped out to Bancroft and Hoblitzell fled out to Niehoff, while Lewis biting on

WORLD RECORD BROKEN

By Associated Press.
New York, October 9.—Twenty of the speediest automobiles in the world started in the 350 mile race for the Astor cup and $50,000 in prizes at the new Sheepshead Bay speedway.

Barney Oldfield was forced out of the race on the 16th mile on account of a broken piston rod. Resta was forced to drop out of the race by a broken connecting rod, shortly after finishing the first 100 miles. At 200 miles Aitken was leading by one minute and one second. His time was 1 hour, 56 minutes and 21 seconds, an average of 103.14 miles. This was a new world's record, the best previous time being 2 hours 2 minutes, 16.17 seconds, made at Chicago.

PRESIDENT AND HIS FIANCEE SEE WORLD SERIES

By Associated Press.
New York, October 9.—President Wilson and his fiancee, Mrs. Norman Galt, and their party left in a private car at 11 o'clock for Philadelphia where they will attend the world series baseball game this afternoon.

The two hours previous to their departure Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Galt accompanied by her mother spent in an automobile drive up Riverside Drive through Central Park and down Fifth Avenue. They were almost everywhere recognized and greeted with cheers or hand clapping. The president bought a diamond ring for Mrs. Galt in New York and today she wore it proudly.

VILLA HAS NEW PLAN

By Associated Press.
El Paso, Texas, October 9. — A coalition cabinet of factional representatives was proposed by General Villa today as the alternative to the recognition of General Carranza. The recognition of Carranza, he said, would not produce peace in Mexico since he and his adherents would fight to the last.

"I shall fight Carranza and his despotic principles as long as his principles threaten the freedom of the poor people of Mexico," declared Villa. He said he had troops scattered throughout Mexico under many commands.

By Associated Press.
Paris, October 9.—The report of the night indicates that the German losses in the offensive of yesterday against the positions of the allies near Loos were very heavy.

London, October 9.—Strong representations are said by the Central News to have been made by Bulgaria to Greece, against the landing of French and British troops at Saloniki.

Great Britain and France are determined to push through with the military expeditions started for the Serbian front through Saloniki, according to Athens advices received last night in Rome.

King Constantine, it was stated, was given to understand this in a plain-spoken statement by the British Foreign Office.

LESS THAN $100,000 STOLEN FROM B. & O.

By Associated Press.
Washington, October 9.—Post-office inspectors today, after investigation of yesterday's hold-up on a B. & O. train near Central Station, W. Va., said that less than $100,000 in currency was taken by the robbers.

First reports placed the amount of currency in transit between the treasury and Western banks at more than $500,000. Investigation developed that no such large amount was on the train.

B. & O. railroad police received a telephone message this morning that the robbers who held up the B. & O. express near Central, W. Va., yesterday, had been seen making their way across the country evidently heading for Sistersville, on the Ohio river.

With a special train a party of men immediately started for Sistersville.

The United States Department of Justice at Washington was notified today that Governor Hatfield had offered the services of the militia to surround the robbers. Information to the department is to the effect that 100 packages of registered mail was taken by the bandits.

Clarksburg, W. Va., October 9.—Deputy Sheriff Leo Wolfe who led the hunt in the vicinity of Central Station where early yesterday a B. & O. passenger train was robbed, returned here today with his men completely exhausted after their all night search. They found a man's coat in a pocket of which were four loaded revolver magazines and a long knife in a road 8 miles north of Central Station in Tyler county, but bloodhounds were baffled by many foot prints and refused to follow a trail.

LOOT OF ROBBERS IS TEN MILLIONS?

Held Up Express Train and Looted the Mail Car.

ESCAPE WITH RICH BOOTY

Persistently Reported That Federal Bank Certificates, Amounting to $500,000, Were Taken by the Robbers, Who Perpetrated the Bold Deed in West Virginia—Additional Details of the Holdup.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 9.—The two masked bandits who held up and robbed the Baltimore and Ohio express train en route from New York to St. Louis two miles west of Central, W. Va., have so far eluded the posses who are scouring the countryside for the desperadoes.

One party, which returned to Parkersburg, sixty miles from the scene of the robbery, reported that clothes such as those supposed to have been worn by the men, as well as two revolvers, were found in the country back of Tollgate, where they left the engine and mail car, but there was nothing which might lead to the identity of the men.

Reporters regarding the amount of the loot obtained by the bandits varied. One said that Postmaster Sims Powell of Parkersburg received a telegram advising that federal bank certificates were in the packages stolen from the mail car, but the amount was not specified. Unofficially, the amount has been placed at $500,000.

Local government officials, who have been in touch with the situation, are of the opinion that the bandits were aware that the money which was being sent from Washington was on this train, as it has been definitely learned that they demanded the Washington packages of the mail clerks.

The train was due at Parkersburg at 1 a. m. and it was nearly an hour later when Grant Holmes, the engineer, was attracted by a noise from the tender. Looking over his shoulder, he saw two masked men climbing over the coal, each carrying an automatic shotgun. They called for him not to move, and a minute later he and the fireman were facing the guns.

One of the men ordered Holmes to cut off the engine and through mail car from the remainder of the train and then stood by Holmes, directing the distance he should run it. When two miles to the west had been covered, the highwaymen ordered Holmes to stop and climb down, while the fireman was compelled to do likewise. The other masked man then took the throttle, and, as though well acquainted with the operation of the engine, ran the train a mile or two farther west.

Here the robbers went through the mail car, paying particular attention to the registered mail, which they looted completely and then deserted the train, going across the hills in the direction of the Ohio river. A short time later the engine and mail car were found by a track walker where they had been left.

$10,000,000 the Booty?

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Not less than $100,000 and probably more—maybe as much as $10,000,000—was the amount of loot secured by the bandits who held up Baltimore and Ohio train No. 1 at Central Station, W. Va. This was the opinion expressed by postal officials in Cincinnati, after they had received official reports from Clerk-in-Charge Haines Huff and the other two mail clerks, who were held at bay while the bandits made their escape with ninety-three registered packages containing money shipped from the United States treasury at Washington.

TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH TAX

Columbus, Oct. 9.—State tax commissioners, after two months of hearings and investigations, have valued Ohio telephone and telegraph companies as follows:

Central Union Telephone company (Bell), $15,347,420, an increase of $141,660 over last year's appraisal; American Telephone and Telegraph company (Bell long-distance), $5,662,100; Cincinnati and Suburban Telephone company (Bell), $11,036,300, an increase of $404,580; Cleveland Telephone company (Bell), $7,816,270, an increase of $157,940; Ohio State Telephone company, including the old Columbus Citizen Home Telephone company and other city systems previously independent, $14,979,200; Western Union Telegraph company, $4,274,300, and the Postal Telegraph company, $569,540.

REAL WAR LOOMS UP TO PRINCE

SHOT IN THE ARM SITTING IN AN INN

Prince of Wales Reported Victim of Jealous Man.

Paris, Sept. 28.—(By Messenger to New York.)—Last week the Prince of Wales, while taking tea in an inn at a British outpost near Ypres, was shot in the arm by a French corporal. The attendant at the inn is an attractive young woman, who was passing as an unmarried girl under the name of Barthou, but as a matter of fact she is married to a corporal in a French Hussar regiment named Huguet. Mme. Barthou had many admirers among the British staff officers, among whom the inn became a popular resort. News of this state of affairs reached the husband, who became furiously jealous. On Saturday last the husband obtained leave from the trenches and he unexpectedly turned up at the inn. The Prince of Wales and another staff officer were having tea in the inn at the moment. Huguet rushed into the room and fired two shots, one at his wife and another at the two staff officers. Then he turned the weapon on himself, wounding himself in the neck. The prince was wounded in the arm just above the wrist. The corporal's wife went to the hospital, where her husband was taken, and is looking after him herself.

Charred body of Albert Lewis, sixty, Utica (O.) liveryman, was found in the ruins of the Johnson livery barn at Walhonding, O.

Lloyd B. Stump, thirty-two, druggist of Millford, O., was killed, and James K. Buckingham, lumberman, was seriously injured when an auto plunged over a fifty foot embankment near Cincinnati.

Lying in a bathtub filled with scalding water, the body of Mrs. Priscilla J. Crowninshield of Marblehead, Mass., was found in a Boston hotel.

LOVE HALTS AT DIAMOND

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, arrived here from New York early this afternoon to witness the second game of the world's series baseball championship. Immediately after the game they will go to Washington on a special train.

At the baseball game the president and those with him will occupy a box in the center of the grandstand and the president will throw out the first ball. The president has paid for his baseball tickets himself. He was intensely interested when told that Philadelphia had won the first game of the series, having followed the pennant races in both leagues closely.

The First Game

The first of the world series base ball games has been played and the Philadelphia National league team won—fairly and squarely in a clean fast contest.

Base ball luck, that element which always plays an important part in every diamond contest and is at once the hope of the team accredited by experts with being the weaker one and the despair of those experts who would gain reputations as prophets, was present in Friday's contest.

A majority of those who follow the great national game closely favored the chances of the Boston team, although everyone conceded that with the mighty Alexander in the pitcher's box the "Quakers" had a good chance.

Alexander pitched a good game for his team, but nothing sensational. The younger man, Shore, who occupied the center of the diamond for the Boston team pitched, so far as records tell the story, a better game than the veteran Alexander.

But the "luck" that something in the way of a combination of circumstances which makes base ball what it is, was with the veteran and his team won out.

If the public was less interested in Friday's contest than in similar contests of former years it was not apparent in Philadelphia, in Boston, or anywhere else in the United States.

Business and war news were crowded off the wires all over the land while the details of the great struggle for supremacy in the world's cleanest and most wholesome sport was flashed to every news distributing point.

For nearly two hours America forgot war-mad Europe and the sorrows of those across the sea, forgot her own cares and anxieties and surrendered to full enjoyment of the game in all its details.

It's a great game, this base ball, and it is a great thing for a great people and a great nation to enjoy.

The losers in Friday's game may prove winners in the next. So evenly matched are the two great teams that much, if not all, depends on the smile of "luck." It won the first game and perhaps it may win several more. Perhaps, too, "luck" may shift. It often does. That's base ball.

The President to Marry

President Wilson is going to be married in December.

Well, that's all right. Nothing wrong about it but, some how, the people generally who had placed President Wilson on such a high pedestal of esteem and respect cannot help feeling, on account of his position and in view of all the circumstances, just a little disappointed.

Strictly speaking the public has no right to demand that the public servant make the details of his private life conform to their ideals so long as the private life is above reproach morally, and President Wilson's private life is all of that.

The people of the United States had perhaps, in their abundance of affection and esteem appropriated too much of the president.

They had, because of the fact that his public career has met with such universal approval, accepted him in his official life and in doing so had, unconsciously, fallen into the error of demanding that his private life be subject to their criticism in all the detail acts of commission and omission.

During the three trouble crowded years which President Wilson has occupied the post of chief executive of the land, he has been so eminently proper and dignified in his conduct that we have come to believe him capable of the impossible—measuring up to the varying individual standards in his private life.

The public has no concern with the president's intention to marry and no right to criticize him for the conclusion he has reached.

Perhaps, too, we rather like to think of him as a lonely man bowed down with grief and care and would in our selfishness deny him the happiness which is rightfully his to grasp in order that his appropriation by the public be complete.

The president has had enough of grief and care for the people to be generous and wish him his full measure of happiness. Most of them do, but there are a few who cling to the disappointment they feel as a result of the compelling knowledge that President Wilson is to divide the attentions, which have heretofore been given entirely to the public.

The truth about the matter is that those who acknowledge to a feeling of disappointment, are after all but a bit jealous that another has come into the life of the man who has given so much to the cause of the people.

They have no right to feel jealous but jealousy is a natural and not an acquired weakness.

Poetry For Today

AUTUMN ROMANCE.

Were you a leaf gold tinted,
And I a wandering breeze,
We'd gaily go a-flying
Where streams are lullabying
Through woods by autumn minted.
To far, old, welcoming seas,
Were you a leaf gold tinted
And I a wandering breeze.

Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree,
Whose gold and crimson treasures
I praised in amorous measures,
My words, however truthful,
Would doubted be by thee,
Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree.

Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen
With serenade of passion
I'd sing September's fashion.
Till, modest green forswearing,
You'd blaze, a brilliant queen,
Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen.

Were I the moon of evening
And you the ripening grain,
In my blue dome supernal
I'd brew a draft nocturnal
To set the world a-sleeping
And flood your bright domain
With the glory ever sweeping
Round castles fair in Spain.

Judges' Wigs.

The wig is only worn by English barristers to give them a stern, judicial appearance, and no one can say that it fails in this respect. The custom was originated by a French judge in the seventeenth century when, happening to don a marquis' wig one day, he found it gave him such a stern and dignified appearance that he decided to get one for himself and wear it at all times in court. This he did, and the result was so satisfactory from a legal point of view that not only judges, but barristers also, took up the custom throughout Europe.—London Graphic.

Views of Others

Editor Herald,

Dear Sir:—I read your article of the 6th inst., signed Citizen, with regard to lighting our city and believe he struck the keynote when he said we should own our own lighting plant and I would suggest gas plant also as, per agreement that our city council want to contract with our light company for 110,350 candlepower light system for about $13,000 per annum our former contract was for 158,400 candle power for $8,000 per annum which means that the tax payers are to pay $5000 per annum more for 48059 less candle power than we now have (this contract if made to be in force for 10 years) which will mean that the tax payers are to pay out $50,000 more than we are now paying. Would it not be a good idea to have that $50,000 left in the pockets of the tax payers to buy the necessities of life and have a few more lights put up in the suburbs at a nominal price. I should suggest that our council get in communication with some parties who install such plants and we no doubt can put in our own plant at a great saving to the citizens. $130,000 that is now proposed to pay the electric light company in 10 years would go a great ways toward paying for the plant and after it is once paid for we could then get our gas and electric light for a very nominal price. That is the system that business men pursue when they find that their power and light is exorbitant. If they pursue the plan that our city dads have in the management of our city affairs for the last few years they would soon be out of business. It has been but a few years since the Ohio Fuel Co. agreed to furnish us natural gas at 25 cents per 1000 feet, the maximum price providing we would bond the city for $40,000 to install the plant and they further agreed to pay us 8 per cent interest on the contract until such time as the entire $40,000 was paid back to the city. The city could have borrowed the money at 4 per cent and by so doing could have paid all interest on bonds and $1,600 on the principal the first year and much more each and every year thereafter and by so doing within a very few years we would have had the bonds all paid and owned the entire gas plant and it would not have cost the tax payers one cent and it would have been a saving to each and every gas consumer of 15 cents per 1000 feet.

In turning down this proposition we showed poor business judgment and it took the combined efforts of two attorneys of our city to defeat the proposition.

In my opinion our city can make a great saving by owning both its gas and electric plants and we would not then be asked by council to raise our tax rate to 2 per cent instead of 1.57 which we are now paying. In my opinion the 2 per cent rate should be voted down by every tax payer in the corporation of our city.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF OHIO. . . .

EXEMPTING PUBLIC BONDS FROM TAXATION.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

Section 1. A proposition shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Ohio, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1915, to amend Article XII of the Constitution of the State of Ohio by the addition of Section 12, to read as follows:

JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing a supplement to article XII of the constitution of the State of Ohio, by the addition of a section to the designated section 12 of article XII, relative to the exemption of bonds from taxation.

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, Three-fifths of the members elected to both houses concurring therein:

That there shall be submitted to the electors of this state in the manner provided by law, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1915, a proposal to supplement article XII by an additional section to be designated section 12, article XII of the constitution of Ohio to read as follows:

Section 12. Bonds of the state of Ohio, or of any subdivision or district thereof, authorized by law to issue bonds, issued on or after January 1, 1916, shall be exempt from taxation.

Be it further resolved, That at such election above referred to this supplement shall be placed on the official ballot, in the manner provided by law and designated as follows: "TO EXEMPT BONDS ISSUED ON OR AFTER JANUARY 1, 1915, OF THE STATE OF OHIO, OR ANY SUBDIVISION OR DISTRICT THEREOF AUTHORIZED BY LAW TO ISSUE BONDS, FROM TAXATION," or in other language sufficiently clear to designate it. If adopted this supplement shall take effect on the first day of January, 1916.

Persistently Reported That Federal Bank Certificates, Amounting to $500,000, Were Taken by the Robbers, Who Perpetrated the Bold Deed in West Virginia—Additional Details of the Holdup.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 9.—The two masked bandits who held up and robbed the Baltimore and Ohio express train en route from New York to St. Louis two miles west of Central, W. Va., have so far eluded the posses who are scouring the countryside for the desperadoes.

One party, which returned to Parkersburg, sixty miles from the scene of the robbery, reported that clothes such as those supposed to have been worn by the men, as well as two revolvers, were found in the country back of Tollgate, where they left the engine and mail car, but there was nothing which might lead to the identity of the men.

Report regarding the amount of the loot obtained by the bandits varied. One said that Postmaster Sims Powell of Parkersburg received a telegram advising that federal bank certificates were in the packages stolen from the mail car, but the amount was not specified. Unofficially, the amount has been placed at $500,000.

REAL WAR LOOMS UP TO PRINCE

SHOT IN THE ARM SITTING IN AN INN

Prince of Wales Reported Victim of Jealous Man.

Paris, Sept. 28.—(By Messenger to New York.)—Last week the Prince of Wales, while taking tea in an inn at a British outpost near Tpres, was shot in the arm by a French corporal. The attendant at the inn is an attractive young woman, who was passing as an unmarried girl under the name of Barthou, but as a matter of fact she is married to a corporal in a French Hussar regiment named Huguet. Mme. Barthou had many admirers among the British staff officers, among whom the inn became a popular resort. News of this state of affairs reached the husband, who became furiously jealous. On Saturday last the husband obtained leave from the trenches and he unexpectedly turned up at the inn. The Prince of Wales and another staff officer were having tea in the inn at the moment. Huguet rushed into the room and fired two shots, one at his wife and another at the two staff officers. Then he turned the weapon on himself, wounding himself in the neck. The prince was wounded in the arm just above the wrist. The corporal's wife went to the hospital, where her husband was taken, and is looking after him herself.

LOVE HALTS AT DIAMOND

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, arrived here from New York early this afternoon to witness the second game of the world's series baseball championship. Immediately after the game they will go to Washington on a special train.

At the baseball game the president and those with him will occupy a box in the center of the grandstand and the president will throw out the first ball. The president has paid for his baseball tickets himself. He was intensely interested when told that Philadelphia had won the first game of the series, having followed the pennant races in both leagues closely.

The First Game

The first of the world series base ball games has been played and the Philadelphia National league team won—fairly and squarely in a clean fast contest.

Base ball luck, that element which always plays an important part in every diamond contest and is at once the hope of the team accredited by experts with being the weaker one and the despair of those experts who would gain reputations as prophets, was present in Friday's contest.

A majority of those who follow the great national game closely favored the chances of the Boston team, although everyone conceded that with the mighty Alexander in the pitcher's box the "Quakers" had a good chance.

Alexander pitched a good game for his team, but nothing sensational. The younger man, Shore, who occupied the center of the diamond for the Boston team pitched, so far as records tell the story, a better game than the veteran Alexander.

But the "luck" that something in the way of a combination of circumstances which makes base ball what it is, was with the veteran and his team won out.

If the public was less interested in Friday's contest than in similar contests of former years it was not apparent in Philadelphia, in Boston, or anywhere else in the United States.

Business and war news were crowded off the wires all over the land while the details of the great struggle for supremacy in the world's cleanest and most wholesome sport was flashed to every news distributing point.

For nearly two hours America forgot war-mad Europe and the sorrows of those across the sea, forgot her own cares and anxieties and surrendered to full enjoyment of the game in all its details.

It's a great game, this base ball, and it is a great thing for a great people and a great nation to enjoy.

The losers in Friday's game may prove winners in the next. So evenly matched are the two great teams that much, if not all, depends on the smile of "luck." It won the first game and perhaps it may win several more. Perhaps, too, "luck" may shift. It often does. That's base ball.

The President to Marry

President Wilson is going to be married in December.

Well, that's all right. Nothing wrong about it but, somehow, the people generally who had placed President Wilson on such a high pedestal of esteem and respect cannot help feeling, on account of his position and in view of all the circumstances, just a little disappointed.

Strictly speaking the public has no right to demand that the public servant make the details of his private life conform to their ideals so long as the private life is above reproach morally, and President Wilson's private life is all of that.

The people of the United States had perhaps, in their abundance of affection and esteem appropriated too much of the president.

They had, because of the fact that his public career has met with such universal approval, accepted him in his official life and in doing so had, unconsciously, fallen into the error of demanding that his private life be subject to their criticism in all the detail acts of commission and omission.

During the three trouble crowded years which President Wilson has occupied the post of chief executive of the land, he has been so eminently proper and dignified in his conduct that we have come to believe him capable of the impossible—measuring up to the varying individual standards in his private life.

The public has no concern with the president's intention to marry and no right to criticize him for the conclusion he has reached.

Perhaps, too, we rather like to think of him as a lonely man bowed down with grief and care and would in our selfishness deny him the happiness which is rightfully his to grasp in order that his appropriation by the public be complete.

The president has had enough of grief and care for the people to be generous and wish him his full measure of happiness. Most of them do, but there are a few who cling to the disappointment they feel as a result of the compelling knowledge that President Wilson is to divide the attentions, which have heretofore been given entirely to the public.

The truth about the matter is that those who acknowledge to a feeling of disappointment, are after all but a bit jealous that another has come into the life of the man who has given so much to the cause of the people.

They have no right to feel jealous but jealousy is a natural and not an acquired weakness.

Poetry For Today

AUTUMN ROMANCE.

Were you a leaf gold tinted,
And I a wandering breeze,
We'd gaily go a-flying
Where streams are lullabying
Through woods by autumn minted.
To far, old, welcoming seas,
Were you a leaf gold tinted
And I a wandering breeze.

Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree,
Whose gold and crimson treasures
I praised in amorous measures,
My words, however truthful,
Would doubted be by thee,
Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree.

Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen
With serenade of passion
I'd sing September's fashion,
Till, modest green forswearing,
You'd blaze, a brilliant queen,
Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen.

Were I the moon of reaping
And you the ripening grain,
In my blue dome supernal
I'd brew a draft nocturnal
To set the world a-sleeping
And flood your bright domain
With the glory ever sweeping
Round castles fair in Spain.

Judges' Wigs.

The wig is only worn by English barristers to give them a stern, judicial appearance, and no one can say that it fails in this respect. The custom was originated by a French judge in the seventeenth century when, happening to don a marquis' wig one day, he found it gave him such a stern and dignified appearance that he decided to get one for himself and wear it at all times in court. This he did, and the result was so satisfactory from a legal point of view that not only judges, but barristers also, took up the custom throughout Europe.—London Graphic.

Views of Others

Editor Herald,

Dear Sir:—I read your article of the 6th inst., signed Citizen, with regard to lighting our city and believe he struck the keynote when he said we should own our own lighting plant and I would suggest gas plant also as, per agreement that our city council want to contract with our light company for 110,350 candlepower light system for about $13,000 per annum our former contract was for 158,400 candle power for $8,000 per annum which means that the tax payers are to pay $5000 per annum more for 48050 less candle power than we now have (this contract if made to be in force for 10 years) which will mean that the tax payers are to pay out $50,000 more than we are now paying. Would it not be a good idea to have that $50,000 left in the pockets of the tax payers to buy the necessities of life and have a few more lights put up in the suburbs at a nominal price. I should suggest that our council get in communication with some parties who install such plants and we no doubt can put in our own plant at a great saving to the citizens. $130,000 that is now proposed to pay the electric light company in 10 years would go a great ways toward paying for the plant and after it is once paid for we could then get our gas and electric light for a very nominal price. That is the system that business men pursue when they find that their power and light is exhorbitant. If they pursue the plan that our city dads have in the management of our city affairs for the last few years they would soon be out of business. It has been but a few years since the Ohio Fuel Co. agreed to furnish us natural gas at 25 cents per 1000 feet, the maximum price providing we would bond the city for $40,000 to install the plant and they further agreed to pay us 8 per cent interest on the contract until such time as the entire $40,000 was paid back to the city. The city could have borrowed the money at 4 per cent and by so doing could have paid all interest on bonds and $1,600 on the principal the first year and much more each and every year thereafter and by so doing within a very few years we would have had the bonds all paid and owned the entire gas plant and it would not have cost the tax payers one cent and it would have been a saving to each and every gas consumer of 15 cents per 1000 feet.

In turning down this proposition we showed poor business judgment and it took the combined efforts of two attorneys of our city to defeat the proposition.

In my opinion our city can make a great saving by owning both its gas and electric plants and we would not then be asked by council to raise our tax rate to 2 per cent instead of 1.57 which we are now paying. In my opinion the 2 per cent rate should be voted down by every tax payer in the corporation of our city.

The work of preparing the room for the boys has been completed, game tables, reading tables supplied by good literature, and other means of diversion offered.

The boys will be under the control of a Junior Secretary who will be picked to take the place of Junior Secretary Elliott, who leaves for Detroit.

The new room, since being completed, has been occupied by the Episcopal society. The room connects with the main auditorium by a doorway, and within a short time another doorway will be cut through the basement walls.

The new arrangement is one which long has been in demand, and meets with general approval. The change is expected to attract new members, both men and boys.

BLOOMINGBURG STORE IS TAKEN OVER BY SHERIFF

Sheriff Jones, armed with an execution issued by the Logan County common pleas court as the result of judgment in the sum of $966.20, being taken by The Ligonier Carriage Company against A. O. Moore, of Bloomingburg, went to Bloomingburg Friday afternoon and levied upon the Moore general store, appointing Chas. Larrimer and O. W. Creath as appraisers.

The store at the present time is being conducted under the instruction of Sheriff Jones, and Mr. Moore is said to be making arrangements with a view to giving bond and continuing in charge of the business at that place.

The stock of goods carried by the Moore store is said to have a value of $4,000 to $5,000.

HENRY L. HIRE WILL PROBATED

The last will and testament of the late Henry L. Hire of Jefferson township, has been probated, and Attorney E. L. Bush has qualified as executor furnishing bond in the sum of $29,000.

The estate contains some 800 acres of Fayette county's choicest realty, and the deceased had large holdings in other properties.

Frank M. Kimball and Pope Gregg are the witnesses and the instrument was executed more than 16 years ago—July 20, 1899.

Deceased first provides for the payment of all debts, and then gives to his widow during her life time, the home farm of 100 acres in Jefferson township; also another farm of 100 acres; also another of 24 acres; also a tract containing seven acres in addition to all stock, household goods, furniture, bank stock, money, credits and all chattels.

At her death the following division is ordered made: farm of 100 acres goes to a nephew, W. W. Hines and other three tracts above mentioned to a niece, Flora Little. Also to W. W. Hines 62½ acres in Jefferson township, 30 acres in Jefferson son township and 30 acres in same township. Also the sum of $500.

To Flora Little 62½ acres and $500 in money.

To nephew, Glenn Brock, tracts of realty containing 20 acres, 22 acres and 18 acres, in Jefferson township. Also $500 in money.

The sum of $500 each is given to Anna Gordin, Francis Beaddy, Anna Fent, Lillie Fent, Maggie Puckett and William F. Newman.

DRY CHAIRMEN OF THE TOWNSHIPS

Following is a list of the chairmen of township and corporation dry committees throughout Fayette county:

Jefferson, G. S. Threlkeld; Upper Paint, O. W. Ervin; Lower Paint, W. F. Jefferson; Madison, Robert G. Jefferson; Marion, John N. Browning; Jasper, Frank E. Hidy; Concord, A. C. Kneisley; Green, B. F. Coffey; Perry, W. R. Everhart; West Wayne, Isaac Cory; East Wayne, D. C. McCune; East Union, A. L. Moore; West Union, Frank E. Haines; Jeffersonville, S. C. Morrow; Bloomingburg, Albert Haines.

PIQUA WANTING "ELIAS DENNER"

According to the police, Piqua is very desirous of locating "Elias Denner," relative of John Denner of Bainter murder fame, and the officers of that city have telephoned to Chief Moore asking him to locate the man.

As far as the police have been able to ascertain there has never been an Elias Denner living here, and the Piqua authorities have evidently been placed on the wrong lead.

The authorities of Piqua claim a pal of Denner has been arrested for a jewelry robbery in Piqua, and that he implicated "Elias Denner" said to reside in this city.

WEATHER MAN IS FOOLED ONCE MORE

The weather broke loose from the guardianship of the Weather Man, Friday night, and in a breezy manner entertained Jack Frost so that he did not have the opportunity of turning a cold shoulder on Mother Earth.

As a result there was little real damage done in this part of Ohio.

LADIES OF G. A. R. ENTERTAIN VETERANS

The G. A. R. veterans of the Col. B. H. Millikan post greatly enjoyed the social afternoon Friday, given in their honor by the Ladies of the G. A. R.

Mrs. Persis McLean and Miss Etha Sturgeon met the veterans at the door and escorted them to seats, while Mrs. Grace Weir played patriotic melodies.

The program was opened by Mrs. Weir singing the soldier's favorite, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground."

Post commander I. N. Rowe, delegate to the National G. A. R. encampment at Washington, D. C., made a most interesting talk on the encampment and Mr. W. D. Blakemore supplemented it from his experiences at the same conclave.

Rev. J. V. Stone, who had been invited as the son of a veteran, responded to a request with a very happy little talk, paying tribute to the comrades and their valiant patriotism.

Everybody joined in singing "America," after which Chaplain Near gave formal dismissal for a delightful social hour with refreshments.

EXECUTIVE SESSION COUNTY W. C. T. U.

The county W. C. T. U. officers met in executive session at the Welfare Association headquarters Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Taggart, county president, had the meeting in charge and the first hour was spent in stamping temperance literature for immediate distribution.

A motion authorizing the printing of more Fayette county cook books carried. Owing to the increased cost price the selling price will be 50c each.

Business was transacted and Mr. M. E. Hitchcock, chairman of the county dry committee, outlined a plan of temperance work for the coming year. Mrs. Taggart urged W. C. T. U. women every where to observe the noon hour prayer.

Mrs. Alice Adams closed the meeting with prayer.

GREAT HALLOWE'EN PAGEANT PLANNED

As usual during the past three or four years, a big Halloween celebration will be held this year, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and all expecting to take part in the parade and performances will soon be planning their costumes for the affair.

The celebration, as usual, will be open to everyone, and several hundred persons will be in line. It is expected that many elaborate and carefully planned costumes will be a feature of the celebration.

MORE THAN 6000 HAWKS SLAUGHTERED

In four months time the number of hawks slaughtered in the Buckeye State for the bounty of $1 per head, was 6000.

This announcement has been made by General John C. Speaks, chief game warden of the state.

The hawks allowed killed and for which bounties are paid are: Chicken hawk, American goshawk, blue hawk, Copper hawk, and sharp-shinned or duck hawk.

BACHERT'S GARAGE SECURES AGENCY FOR DODGE CAR

All Local Sales Rights for Popular and Much Sought After Car Are Granted to Market Street Dealer.

Twenty Thousand Dodge Cars Sold in First Six Months - Remarkable Record of Popularity.

yesterday, confirming the appointment of Bachert's Garage as local dealers for Dodge Brothers in Washington C. H. and vicinity.

Just a year ago, Dodge Brothers, who had been manufacturing the vital parts for more than 500,000 motor cars, announced that they would soon market a car bearing their own name. Today over 20,000 satisfied purchasers of Dodge Brothers' cars are driving their machines daily and obtaining the utmost in satisfaction.

"Dealers and owners have now had a year in which to judge the car and it goes without saying that the public has set its stamp of approval on this popular priced car. Not only has the factory been oversold from the very beginning, but even today, when the first rush might be expected to be over, we have three purchasers for every car we can get.

"In bringing out their new car Dodge Brothers set an entirely new standard for the popular priced field. Accustomed to securing imitation leather and careless workmanship in low-priced cars, the motoring public was agreeably surprised to find genuine leather upholstery, excellent springs and up-to-the minute equipment on the new Dodge Brothers' car. We feel that every sale of a car means an additional booster and are preparing for the biggest season in the history of our business."

Dodge Brothers' new automobile is a real car in every particular. Freakish design has been carefully avoided and the beautiful stream-line body is combined with a powerful 30-35 horsepower motor, to make an ideal car for five passengers. It is a big roomy car in every sense of the word, having a wheelbase of 110 inches and wheels 32 by 3 1/2 inches. The motor is cast en bloc and has a bore of 3 7/8 inches and a stroke 4 1/2 inches. Electric lighting and starting apparatus is included, and the equipment in every way suggests the car of $2,000 rather than one of $750, the price which Dodge Brothers have made. Real leather upholstery and the latest type of self-lubricating springs makes the car one of the easiest riding machines that has ever been marketed. Among the unusual features on the car is the speedometer drive, which is connected directly to the transmission and is, therefore, practically trouble proof. The arrangement of the transmission gears is also a novel one, no gears except the third being in operation when the car is driven on direct drive.

LOCAL DIVISION MAY SOON HAVE TELEPHONE

The Midland division of the B. & O. S. W. railroad may be equipped with telephones for dispatching trains, beginning sometime next year, according to unofficial information.

At the present time telephones are being installed throughout the main line of the road, and it is believed that next year the same method will be used on the local division for handling the business of the road.

BANKS TO CLOSE

Tuesday, October 11th is Columbus Discovery Day and has been set aside as a National holiday. All banks in the city will remain closed throughout the day.

In Social Circles

Honoring Mrs. Michael S. Creamer of Los Angeles, Cal., Misses Charlotte and Nina Dahl gave a charming three table Bridge, Friday evening.

A delicious luncheon accompanied by artistic decorations of white and green was served. A feature of the luncheon was a "Hallowe'en pie" from which each guest drew a favor. Mrs. Creamer was presented with a beautiful cluster of pink roses.

The guests were Mesdames Creamer, Mrs. C. H. Griffin, Frank L. Stutson, Bertha S. Miller, Fuller Hess, G. L. Spragg, Pearce Ballard, C. Graham Beckel, Misses Janet Stutson and Lavin Cockerill, Emily Tanzey.

Mrs. M. S. Daugherty and Mrs. H. E. Daugherty entertained Friday afternoon at a Bridge of exceptionally beautiful appointments, in compliment to their guest, Mrs. Kreamer of Uniontown, Pa.

A profusion of flowers graced the handsome home and an elaborate collation followed the game. Corsage bouquets were the favors.

Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. W. W. Westerfield, of New Orleans, La.; Mrs. Clark Story of Chillicothe and daughter Mrs. Pattison of Washington, Pa.; Mrs. Otis Story of Chillicothe, Miss Louise Baer of Columbus.

Mrs. George Jackson and daughter Miss Emma, extended the hospitality of their home for the first meeting of the Study Class, Friday afternoon.

There was a large attendance and much interest in the study opened under the leadership of Mrs. Wm. Boynton Gage.

Afternoon tea was served and the social features enjoyed.

Miss Margaret Mark gives an informal baked bean supper Sunday evening for Miss Sarah Baker, who leaves Monday for her new home in Columbus.

The additional guests will be Misses Marguerite Conner, Mable Caldwell, Dorothy Foster, Chester Murphy, of Greenfield, Ronald Dick and Ralph Mayer.

Miss Regina McDonald opened a private dancing class for the Junior set, Friday night at the I. G. O. F. Hall. The little coterie enjoyed the first lesson and the class promises to be a pleasurable event.

Miss Jane Paul furnished excellent piano music.

DIRECTORS ARE PRONE TO TALK

New York, Oct. 9.—The affairs of the new Midvale Steel and Ordnance company are being rapidly rounded into shape under the driving activity of William Ellis Corey, its president, Alva C. Dinkley, its vice president, and several of the directors, who are operating men. A meeting of a number of the directors was held and informal conferences were continued, centering about Mr. Corey's office.

The announcement from Washington that Attorney General Gregory would scrutinize the combination did not slacken the efforts of the leaders of the new corporation. Officers and directors were emphatic in their statements that they were so positive that the amalgamation was entirely within the law that the attorney general's announcement caused them not the shadow of worry as to the legality of the enterprise. The matter had been examined from all points by counsel for the company and directors had been advised before proceeding that the company was a lawful one.

SERBIA DECLARES WAR ON BULGARIA

London, Oct. 9.—Serbia has declared war on Bulgaria, according to a report received at Geneva. A dispatch received from Nish, while not mentioning any definite declaration of war, corroborated the Swiss report to the extent of announcing that the Bulgarian minister at Nish has received his passports.

OFFICIAL ACCUSED

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Irregularities totaling $56,719 are charged against Canton officials, city employees, contractors and supply firms in a report made to the state bureau of accounting by Examiner Will E. Heck. It covers the period from December, 1913, to April, 1914.

Monday is the last discount day on gas and electric light bills.

TAKES POISON

New York, Oct. 9.—Percival Moser of Wilmington, Del., ended four days spent along Broadway with a handsome, attractive woman by taking thirty grains of bichloride of mercury and two grains of morphine at the Hotel Marlborough, where he and the woman had been staying. Moser is in New York hospital with slim chances of recovery. The woman was allowed to leave the hotel and her whereabouts is not known.

STATE BOARD QUESTIONED

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Because the members of the state board of agriculture were named prior to the time when the law creating them became effective and under a repealed statute, Auditor of State Donahey holds they were not properly named. The board now is only a de facto body, the auditor holds, in a letter to the governor, and should be renamed in order to properly qualify as legal officials. Mr. Donahey says that unless the members are legally appointed he will refuse to pay any more of their per diem salaries and expense bills.

LOST IN WRECK

Upper Sandusky, O., Oct. 9.—John Tilton, a wealthy stockman of this city, was killed, and Alfred Walton, a prominent resident of Sycamore, seriously injured in a railroad wreck between Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Monroe, Ind. They were returning from Chicago.

IRISH DENY WILD STORY

New York, Oct. 9.—Several of 246 young Irishmen, in their teens, who arrived in the steerage of the American liner New York were reported to have said at quarantine that they had received $100 each and free passage to this port from Liverpool by agents of the German government in Ireland, who said Germany wanted to prevent the Irish enlisting for the war. After the New York docked not one of the Irish immigrants would admit that the story told at quarantine and repeated by the ship's officers was true.

DRY PLAN FOR 1916 LAUNCHED

WANT LIQUOR ISSUE REFERRED TO STATES

Drys Would Have Congress Take Question Out of Politics.

Columbus, Oct. 9.—In the hope of preventing the wet and dry fight in 1916 from having a political appearance, the Anti-Saloon League of America purposes to urge the Sixty-fourth congress to put through a resolution submitting to the several states a national prohibition amendment.

A resolution to this effect was adopted by the national legislative committee and officers of the league in session here. It was pointed out that it would be good strategy to secure submission at the hands of the incoming congress, since that would refer the question back to the several states for action, and not bring the prohibition fight directly into contact with the national election. It was decided to press for a vote on the resolution for submission of national prohibition at the earliest possible date in congress.

Congressman Hobson of Alabama, who was present, expressed his approval of the steps taken.

WOULD STAMP OUT GLANDERS

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Health Officer Landis and Chief Food Inspector R. B. Blume took drastic measures to check the spread of glanders among horses in Hamilton county. Dr. Blume ordered shot every horse showing symptoms of the disease. The outbreak, he says, is due to the sale of circus horses at Milford recently. Forty cases have developed since then.

RECEIPTS OF FIRST GAME

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Receipts and attendance for first game: Total attendance, 19,343; total receipts $51,066; players' share, $27,575.64; share of club owners, each $9,191.88; National commission's share, $5,106.62.

ADMITS CRIME

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Reuben H. Sinsinger, postmaster at Bentonville, O., pleaded guilty to the charge of embezzling $60.23 from the funds of his office and United States Court Judge Hollister fined him $500 and costs.

LEADER DEAD

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 9.—James Kirby, president of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, died here. He was operated on for appendicitis and did not recover from the shock. He was fifty years old.

CHICAGO TO BE VERY DRY

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The police will have little to do Sunday in enforcing the saloon closing order, according to word which came from the liquor interests. Word went forth to the 7,152 saloonkeepers to "clamp the lid on tight" for the purpose giving Chicagoans a real taste of what the order means. Plans were begun for a demonstration of the so-called personal liberty element, probably a parade, on Sunday.

LONGFELLOW'S HOME.

Craigie House Is to Be Preserved For Use of the Public.

Longfellow's home, Craigie House, in Cambridge, is to be preserved for the public. Several months ago, says the Boston Transcript, it was learned from the filing of the will of Mrs. Richard Henry Dana (Edith Longfellow Dana), daughter of the poet, the surviving heirs agreed to intrust the house to three trustees, together with a sum of money for upkeep, for a triple purpose: (1) "As a specimen of the best colonial architecture of the eighteenth century;" (2) "As a historical monument of the occupation of the house by George Washington during the siege of Boston in the Revolutionary war;" (3) "As a memorial to Henry Wordsworth Longfellow."

Longfellow heirs may live in the house by paying rent. When the time comes that no surviving heir wishes to do that the mansion is to be managed solely as a memorial "for the benefit of the public." Thus, definitely and without further action, Craigie House is placed forever among the state's public monuments to art and patriotism and to celebrate equally one who pleaded for justice, humanity and, particularly, the beautiful.

Natural Pillows.

The pollack tree provides the natives of British Honduras with splendid material for pillows and mattresses. It is a common soft wood growth with a large pear shaped fruit, which has a hard shell, changing to almost black when ripe, and containing a short staple brown fluff or silk fiber. The fluff is about a quarter of an inch long, more like the finest of camel's hair than fiber, and is used extensively for filling pillows and mattresses. It will not become hard, even after years of service. The natives occasionally expose it to the sunlight for a day or two and put it back as good as ever.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Danger in Hot Drinks.

Cancer on the surface, where it can be observed, never begins as cancer, but results from other sores or breaks in the skin or tissues. Especially does there seem to be a close relation between burns and cancer. Dr. W. J. Mayo points to the fact that locomotive engineers often have cancer of the leg from the heat of the furnace and that in other occupations cancer is most common where heat is applied to the body. "I cannot get it out of my head," said he, "that the cause of much cancer of the stomach is the drinking of hot drinks." Many people drink fluids too hot to be held in the mouth. The stomach cannot get rid of such scalding drinks and must suffer actual burns.

SERBIANS SCORE AGAINST ENEMY

Rout a Teutonic Force That Crossed Near Belgrade.

ENGAGED AT OTHER POINTS

Berlin, However, Announces Progress In the Great Drive at Serbia, Claiming That the Movement Across the Border is Proceeding Favorably. Greece Expected to Maintain Neutrality—Operations On All Fronts.

London, Oct. 9.—The advance guard of the Teutons which crossed the Danube at Belgrade has been partly destroyed and partly captured, and those who entered Serbian territory across the Save have met with heavy losses, according to an official dispatch received by the Serbian legation here from Nish. Berlin, however, announces progress in the great drive at Serbia, declaring that the movement of the Teutonic forces across the Danube, Save and Drina rivers is proceeding favorably.

The Serbian dispatch reads: "The advance guard of the enemy which crossed at the Belgrade fortress has been partly destroyed and partly captured. At Yarak, Zabrez and the Isle of Progaraska, after several fierce attacks, the enemy has been pinned to the very brink of the river with enormous losses. At the other crossing points the struggle continues. At Belgrade two officers and over 100 soldiers were captured."

A dispatch from Paris says the Bulgarian minister to France has been given his passports.

The Anglo-French force which was landed at Salonica is making its way northward to assist the Serbs and to protect Macedonia from a threatened Bulgarian invasion.

The landing of British and French troops is proceeding despite the change in the Greek government. The ministers of the entente powers at Athens have asked Greece to define her policy with regard to the Balkan situation, but the new premier, Alexander Zaimis, has answered that he will be unable to do this until a meeting of the cabinet is held. There is, however, evidence that Greece will maintain a policy of benevolent neutrality toward the allies.

Allied fleets already are reported off Bulgarian ports in the Aegean and Black seas and in view of the possibility of a Russian landing on the Black sea coast of Bulgaria, it is stated that a Turkish army is being sent there so that the Bulgars will not be called upon to fight their old friends and protectors.

What assistance Italy will lend her allies in the new venture forced upon them in the Balkans is not disclosed, nor has any change in the policy of Roumania been announced.

A renewed offensive by the allies on the western front has not yet materialized, the recent French attacks in Champagne and Artois apparently having been simply local attempts to capture points of vantage, which brought about furious German counterattacks. This is particularly true of the attack against the hill of Taure, in the center of the German lines in Champagne, which has been almost continuously under German fire since its capture by the French.

A somewhat similar situation seemingly has arisen on the eastern front. The Germans several times have shown signs of developing a big attack against Ivinik, but beyond gaining a few yards of trenches they have made no progress, while from that region right down to Galicia the Austro-Germans have been engaged in meeting strong Russian attacks.

How To Vote

Acts of the Fifty first General Assembly Ordered, by referendum Petition, to be Submitted to the Electors of the State.

FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 710 (THE SPRAGUE ACT) (CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTING BILL)

AN ACT to amend section 4828-1 of the General Code, making an apportionment of the state of Ohio into congressional districts under the thirteenth census of the United States.

AGAINST HOUSE BILL NO. 710. (THE SPRAGUE ACT) (CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT BILL)

AN ACT to amend section 4828-1 of the General Code, making an apportionment of the state of Ohio into congressional districts under the thirteenth census of the United States.

FOR AMENDED SENATE BILL NO. 307. (THE McDERMOTT ACT)

AN ACT to provide for license to traffic in intoxicating liquors and to further regulate the traffic therein, and to amend sections 1261-16, 1261-17, 1261-18, 1261-19, 1261-20, 1261-21, 1261-24, 1261-33, 1261-40, 1261-41, 1261-43, 1261-46, and 1261-47 of the General Code.

AGAINST AMENDED SENATE BILL NO. 307. (THE McDERMOTT ACT)

AN ACT to provide for license to traffic in intoxicating liquors and to further regulate the traffic therein, and to amend sections 1261-16, 1261-17, 1261-18, 1261-19, 1261-20, 1261-21, 1261-24, 1261-33, 1261-40, 1261-41, 1261-43, 1261-46, and 1261-47 of the General Code.

The constitution of the state provides that for the use of the electors in a referendum election on an act of the General Assembly, the Secretary of State shall so prepare the ballots as to permit of an affirmative and a negative vote.

It will be noticed that the ballot to be voted in the referendum election on the congressional gerrymander bill and the McDermott liquor license bill is so prepared. The voters, therefore, in the referendum election will NOT find a ballot permitting them to vote "yes" or "no."

If therefore, the elector desires to vote against the gerrymander law—desires that the congressional districts of Ohio remain as they are now,—he should place his 'cross' mark in the space to the left of the second division opposite the words "against House bill No. 170."

If the voter desires the congressional districts changed from their present form he should place his cross mark in the space to the left of the first subdivision on the ballot and opposite the words "For House bill No. 170."

The same rules should be observed in voting on the McDermott act.

If the voter desires the new liquor license law to obtain he should place his cross mark in the space to the left of the third sub-division on the ballot opposite the words "For Amended Senate bill No. 307."

If the voter desires the present liquor license law retained unchanged he should place his "cross" mark in the space to the left of the last subdivision on the ballot and opposite the words "Against Amended Senate bill No. 307."

By marking FOR either of the bills mentioned on the ballots the voter expresses his desire for the new law.

By marking the ballot AGAINST either one of the bills mentioned the voter expresses a desire to retain the present law.

RED SOX VICTORS IN SECOND GAME

a wide cure, fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Barry tossed out Mayer and also tossed out Scott, taking the grounder away back on the grass. Bancroft singled to right center. Speaker made a nice play on the ball and almost nipped Bancroft who overran the bag. Gardner threw out Paskert. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Seventh Inning — Barry singled sharply to left. Thomas forced Barry at second, Mayer to Bancroft to Niehoff and Foster singled to left, Thomas going to second. Janvrin ran for Thomas and Hooper scratched an infield hit filling the bases. Hendricksen batting for Scott popped out to Luderus. No runs, three hits, no errors.

Cady went in to catch for Boston and Janvrin took Scott's place at shortstop. Cravath fanned on three pitched balls and Luderus fled out to Hooper. Whitted fouled out to Cady. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning — Speaker went out Luderus to Mayer and Hoblitzel fled out to Cravath. Bancroft threw out Lewis at first, spearing the ball with his gloved hand as it was bounding over the second bag and then making a line throw to first. It was a sparkling play. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Gardner threw out Niehoff, another brilliant play, shutting off a sure hit. Burns popped out to Janvrin and Mayer fled to Speaker. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning — Gardner singled to left and Barry fled out to Paskert. Janvrin went out, Mayer to Luderus on a close play, Gardner going to second. Gardner scored on Foster's single to center and Foster went to second on the throw to the plate. Hooper fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

The band played the Star Spangled Banner and the President and the crowd stood up with bared heads while the players doffed their hats. Stock flew out to Lewis; Bancroft struck out. Paskert fled to Speaker, ending the game. No runs, no hits, no errors.

CHANGES MADE IN WILMINGTON PAPERS

Two important changes have taken place in the Wilmington, Ohio, newspapers, the Herald, which was issued daily for a few weeks but was discontinued, having been leased by W. J. Galvin, of Jamestown, according to reports from Wilmington, and the Journal-Republican, one of the best weekly newspapers published in the state in a town the size of Wilmington has announced that beginning at once the Journal will be issued twice each week. The other newspaper published in Wilmington is the Clinton County Democrat.

ASPHALT STREETS PROVING POPULAR

With the completion and opening of two sections of asphalt street in this city, local citizens are expressing a preference for asphalt paving for residential streets. It is claimed that a majority of property owners on both Columbus avenue and Paint street, which will be paved next spring, favor asphalt. On Main street and Hinde street many of the property owners are in favor of brick paving at least over that portion where heavy hauling to and from the railroads is greatest.

AT THE EMPIRE

The Irma Stock Company which comes to the Empire Theater next week, are playing to capacity houses nightly in Wilmington this week. It's only a verification of the old saying, "the show a little better and a little different from the other fellow's, gets the business." Their plays are all new and put on in a manner entirely different from the usual traveling stock companies, in fact it is more like witnessing one of the big road productions, every attention is paid to detail and none of those haphazard, slip shod methods are resorted to. The management believing the public would rather see the promise of an actor than the ruin of one, has taken special pains to engage only young and competent players to support their leading lady, Miss Irma Wikoff, that their selection was a happy one is proven by the quality of the performances given and the unstinted praise of press and public. Their opening play, "Just Plain Molly," affords the little lady an excellent opportunity, as it is a happy blending of pathos and smiles. Mr. Howard Wysong, the leading man, is a most excellent foil and the two working as they do, supported by the entire cast affords an evening's entertainment long to be remembered. Reserved seats on sale at Leland's and one lady will be admitted free on Monday night when accompanied by one paid reserved seat ticket, adv.

National League Park, Philadelphia, October 9.—Confidence stimulated by yesterday's victory was apparent in the camp of the Philadelphia Nationals today when they entered the second game of the series which will settle the baseball championship of the world.

The Boston Americans were undismayed by their defeat.

Weather conditions were greatly improved and the playing field was in excellent shape.

What little betting there is on the series still favors the Bostonians, but would-be betters are reluctant to give the odds of 3 to 2 and 5 to 3 demanded by the Philadelphia backers.

The news that nearly 700 bleacher seats were unoccupied during yesterday's game because fans had despaired of securing admittance caused thousands to flock to the grounds today, and there was a rush for the dollar seats.

A long line had stood all night waiting for the gates to open at 10 a. m.

Thousands came early to the park and by noon the backfield seats were filled and the crowd still coming and pressing for admission. Reserved stands filled slowly. Hundreds came early today to see President Wilson and his party on their arrival. The presidential box, near the Boston players' bench, off third base, glowed with red, white and blue bunting and small American flags.

President Wilson and Mrs. Galt were given a continuous ovation upon their arrival. President Baker of the Philadelphia club, officially welcomed President Wilson who was then given a new ball to throw to the players. Meanwhile the Philadelphia players who with the Boston players had grouped themselves in front of the president's box took their positions on the field. Two score of moving picture men and photographers had arranged themselves in front of the president's box.

First Inning — President Wilson threw out the ball to pitcher Mayer. Hooper walked, Mayer's curve breaking wide of the plate. Scott fouled out to Luderus, trying to bunt. Mayer tried to pick off Hooper at first. Speaker shot a terrific liner to right for a base, Hooper going to third. Speaker was out stealing, Burns to Niehoff, but on the return throw to the plate Burns dropped and Hooper scoring Boston's first run. Hoblitzell singled to center, but was out stealing, Burns to Niehoff. One run two hits, one error.

Scott threw out Stock at first making a nice stop behind the pitcher. Bancroft fanned. Paskert was out, Hoblitzell, Barry to Foster. The ball bounded off Hoblitzell's leg and Barry made a quick play on it, getting the runner. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning — Lewis fanned, Mayer's underhand ball baffled the Boston batsman. Gardner singled over Bancroft's head. An attempt at the hit and run play failed and Barry struck out. Mayer threw out Thomas, the Philadelphia pitcher knocking down a hot line drive to make the play. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The crowd shouted for a home run when Cravath came up but the slugger struck out missing a high fast one for his third strike. Foster had a bushel of speed and a quick drop. Luderus also struck out. Scott threw out Whitten at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning — Foster struck out, Burns to Luderus, Burns dropping the third strike. Hooper and Scott

bot fanned. Mayer was given a big hand as he walked to the home bench. No runs, no hits, no errors. Niehoff fanned. Burns was out, Hoblitzell to Foster. Mayer got a good hand as he came to the plate but he fell a victim on strikes. It was Foster's fifth strikeout. All during the innings he kept the ball on the inside corner of the plate. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning — Speaker fled out to Bancroft. Hoblitzell went out to Luderus unassisted but Lewis got a single over second which Niehoff was just able to knock down. Lewis out-guessed Mayer on a pitchout, but Gardner went out on a fly to Whitten who had to make a hard run to make the catch. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The stands started a cheer to rattle Foster as Stock came to bat but the latter was out on short fly to Speaker who made the catch after a hard run. Bancroft went out, Hoblitzell to Foster. Paskert was out on a long fly to Hooper. Not a hit had been made off Foster during the first four innings. No hits, no runs, no errors.

Fifth Inning — Barry went out, Stock to Luderus. It was a smart stop by Stock and President Wilson clapped his hands. Thomas went out Stock to Luderus. Foster poled a double against the right field fence, the first extra base hit of the series. Hooper was purposely passed by Mayer and Scott fled to Whitten. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Cravath doubled to left and the crowd howled. It was the Philadelphia's first hit. Cravath scored when Luderus doubled to right center. Whitten went out, Scott to Hoblitzell and Luderus went to third. Niehoff line fled to Hoblitzell and Burns fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning — Speaker popped out to Bancroft and Hoblitzell fled out to Niehoff, while Lewis biting on

New York, October 9. — Twenty of the speediest automobiles in the world started in the 350 mile race for the Astor cup and $50,000 in prizes at the new Sheepshead Bay speedway.

Barney Oldfield was forced out of the race on the 16th mile on account of a broken piston rod. Resta was forced to drop out of the race by a broken connecting rod, shortly after finishing the first 100 miles. At 200 miles Aitken was leading by one minute and one second. His time was 1 hour, 56 minutes and 21 seconds, an average of 103.14 miles. This was a new world's record, the best previous time being 2 hours 2 minutes, 16.17 seconds, made at Chicago.

PRESIDENT AND HIS FIANCEE SEE WORLD SERIES

By Associated Press.

New York, October 9. — President Wilson and his fiancee, Mrs. Norman Galt, and their party left in a private car at 11 o'clock for Philadelphia where they will attend the world series baseball game this afternoon.

The two hours previous to their departure Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Galt accompanied by her mother spent in an automobile drive up Riverside Drive through Central Park and down Fifth Avenue. They were almost everywhere recognized and greeted with cheers or hand clapping. The president bought a diamond ring for Mrs. Galt in New York and today she wore it proudly.

VILLA HAS NEW PLAN

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, October 9. — A coalition cabinet of factional representatives was proposed by General Villa today as the alternative to the recognition of General Carranza. The recognition of Carranza, he said, would not produce peace in Mexico since he and his adherents would fight to the last.

"I shall fight Carranza and his despotic principles as long as his principles threaten the freedom of the poor people of Mexico," declared Villa. He said he had troops scattered throughout Mexico under many commands.

LESS THAN $100,000 STOLEN FROM B. & O.

By Associated Press.

Washington, October 9. — Post-office inspectors today, after investigation of yesterday's hold-up on a B. & O. train near Central Station, W. Va., said that less than $100,000 in currency was taken by the robbers.

First reports placed the amount of currency in transit between the treasury and Western banks at more than $500,000. Investigation developed that no such large amount was on the train.

B. & O. railroad police received a telephone message this morning that the robbers who held up the B. & O. express near Central, W. Va., yesterday, had been seen making their way across the country evidently heading for Sistersville, on the Ohio river.

With a special train a party of men immediately started for Sistersville.

The United States Department of Justice at Washington was notified today that Governor Hatfield had offered the services of the militia to surround the robbers. Information to the department is to the effect that 100 packages of registered mail was taken by the bandits.

Clarksburg, W. Va., October 9. — Deputy Sheriff Leo Wolfe who led the hunt in the vicinity of Central Station where early yesterday a B. & O. passenger train was robbed, returned here today with his men completely exhausted after their all night search. They found a man's coat in a pocket of which were four loaded revolver magazines and a long knife in a road 8 miles north of Central Station in Tyler county, but bloodhounds were baffled by many foot prints and refused to follow a trail.

LOOT OF ROBBERS IS TEN MILLIONS?

Held Up Express Train and Looted the Mail Car.

ESCAPE WITH RICH BOOTY

Persistently Reported That Federal Bank Certificates, Amounting to $500,000, Were Taken by the Robbers, Who Perpetrated the Bold Deed in West Virginia—Additional Details of the Holdup.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 9.—The two masked bandits who held up and robbed the Baltimore and Ohio express train en route from New York to St. Louis two miles west of Central, W. Va., have so far eluded the posses who are scouring the countryside for the desperadoes.

One party, which returned to Parkersburg, sixty miles from the scene of the robbery, reported that clothes such as those supposed to have been worn by the men, as well as two revolvers, were found in the country back of Tollgate, where they left the engine and mail car, but there was nothing which might lead to the identity of the men.

Report regarding the amount of the loot obtained by the bandits varied. One said that Postmaster Sims Powell of Parkersburg received a telegram advising that federal bank certificates were in the packages stolen from the mail car, but the amount was not specified. Unofficially, the amount has been placed at $500,000.

Local government officials, who have been in touch with the situation, are of the opinion that the bandits were aware that the money which was being sent from Washington was on this train, as it has been definitely learned that they demanded the Washington packages of the mail clerks.

The train was due at Parkersburg at 1 a. m. and it was nearly an hour later when Grant Holmes, the engineer, was attracted by a noise from the tender. Looking over his shoulder, he saw two masked men climbing over the coal, each carrying an automatic shotgun. They called for him not to move, and a minute later he and the firemen were facing the guns.

One of the men ordered Holmes to cut off the engine and through mail car from the remainder of the train and then stood by Holmes, directing the distance he should run it. When two miles to the west had been covered, the highwaymen ordered Holmes to stop and climb down, while the fireman was compelled to do likewise. The other masked man then took the throttle, and, as though well acquainted with the operation of the engine, ran the train a mile or two farther west.

Here the robbers went through the mail car, paying particular attention to the registered mail, which they looted completely and then deserted the train, going across the hills in the direction of the Ohio river. A short time later the engine and mail car were found by a track walker where they had been left.

$10,000,000 the Booty?

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Not less than $100,000 and probably more—maybe as much as $10,000,000—was the amount of loot secured by the bandits who held up Baltimore and Ohio train No. 1 at Central Station, W. Va. This was the opinion expressed by postal officials in Cincinnati, after they had received official reports from Clerk-in-Charge Haines Huff and the other two mail clerks, who were held at bay while the bandits made their escape with ninety-three registered packages containing money shipped from the United States treasury at Washington.

TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH TAX

Columbus, Oct. 9.—State tax commissioners, after two months of hearings and investigations, have valued Ohio telephone and telegraph companies as follows:

Central Union Telephone company (Bell), $15,347,420, an increase of $141,660 over last year's appraisal; American Telephone and Telegraph company (Bell long-distance), $5,662,100; Cincinnati and Suburban Telephone company (Bell), $11,036,300, an increase of $404,580; Cleveland Telephone company (Bell), $7,816,270, an increase of $157,940; Ohio State Telephone company, including the old Columbus Citizen Home Telephone company and other city systems previously independent, $14,979,200; Western Union Telegraph company, $4,274,300, and the Postal Telegraph company, $869,540.

REAL WAR LOOMS UP TO PRINCE

SHOT IN THE ARM SITTING IN AN INN

Prince of Wales Reported Victim of Jealous Man.

Paris, Sept. 28.—(By Messenger to New York).—Last week the Prince of Wales, while taking tea in an inn at a British outpost near Ypres, was shot in the arm by a French corporal. The attendant at the inn is an attractive young woman, who was passing as an unmarried girl under the name of Barhou, but as a matter of fact she is married to a corporal in a French Hussar regiment named Huguet. Mme. Barhou had many admirers among the British staff officers, among whom the inn became a popular resort. News of this state of affairs reached the husband, who became furiously jealous. On Saturday last the husband obtained leave from the trenches and he unexpectedly turned up at the inn. The Prince of Wales and another staff officer were having tea in the inn at the moment. Huguet rushed into the room and fired two shots, one at his wife and another at the two staff officers. Then he turned the weapon on himself, wounding himself in the neck. The prince was wounded in the arm just above the wrist. The corporal's wife went to the hospital, where her husband was taken, and is looking after him herself.

Yeggs visited St. Paris, O., and cracked the safes in the postoffice and several stores. About $400 in all was stolen.

Charred body of Alberf Lewis, sixty, Utica (O.) liveryman, was found in the ruins of the Johnson livery barn at Walbonding, O.

Lloyd B. Stump, thirty-two, druggist of Millford, O., was killed, and James K. Buckingham, lumberman, was seriously injured when an auto plunged over a fifty foot embankment near Cincinnati.

Lying in a bathtub filled with scalding water, the body of Mrs. Priscilla J. Crowninshield of Marblehead, Mass., was found in a Boston hotel.

LOVE HALTS AT DIAMOND

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, arrived here from New York early this afternoon to witness the second game of the world's series baseball championship. Immediately after the game they will go to Washington on a special train.

At the baseball game the president and those with him will occupy a box in the center of the grandstand and the president will throw out the first ball. The president has paid for his baseball tickets himself. He was intensely interested when told that Philadelphia had won the first game of the series, having followed the pennant races in both leagues closely.

TRAGIC DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

wooster, O., Oct. 9.—Irene Doty, three, was instantly killed at her home near Nashville when a shotgun placed in a corner of the kitchen by her father fell and was discharged. The girl was playing on the floor with her baby sister when the accident occurred. The girl's head was blown off.

SON PRAISES ROCKEFELLER

Denver, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., addressed the weekly luncheon of the Denver Chamber of Commerce. More than 500 persons were present and the New Yorker was given a tremendous ovation. The millionaire's address was largely devoted to a "defense" of his father, whom he declared to be the most democratic of men. He added:

"My father has been criticised and maligned and condemned for years for his business methods—even because of his great philanthropic endeavors. Yet there is not in him a trace of bitterness. His heart is all gentleness for his fellows. He regards men only with kindness."

The First Game

The first of the world series base ball games has been played and the Philadelphia National league team won fairly and squarely in a clean fast contest.

Base ball luck, that element which always plays an important part in every diamond contest and is at once the hope of the team accredited by experts with being the weaker one and the despair of those experts who would gain reputations as prophets, was present in Friday's contest.

A majority of those who follow the great national game closely favored the chances of the Boston team, although everyone conceded that with the mighty Alexander in the pitcher's box the "Quakers" had a good chance.

Alexander pitched a good game for his team, but nothing sensational. The younger man, Shore, who occupied the center of the diamond for the Boston team pitched, so far as records tell the story, a better game than the veteran Alexander.

But the "luck" that something in the way of a combination of circumstances which makes base ball what it is, was with the veteran and his team won out.

If the public was less interested in Friday's contest than in similar contests of former years it was not apparent in Philadelphia, in Boston, or anywhere else in the United States.

Business and war news were crowded off the wires all over the land while the details of the great struggle for supremacy in the world's cleanest and most wholesome sport was flashed to every news distributing point.

For nearly two hours America forgot war-mad Europe and the sorrows of those across the sea, forgot her own cares and anxieties and surrendered to full enjoyment of the game in all its details.

It's a great game, this base ball, and it is a great thing for a great people and a great nation to enjoy.

The losers in Friday's game may prove winners in the next. So evenly matched are the two great teams that much, if not all, depends on the smile of "luck." It won the first game and perhaps it may win several more. Perhaps, too, "luck" may shift. It often does. That's base ball.

The President to Marry

President Wilson is going to be married in December. Well, that's all right. Nothing wrong about it but, some how, the people generally who had placed President Wilson on such a high pedestal of esteem and respect cannot help feeling, on account of his position and in view of all the circumstances, just a little disappointed.

Strictly speaking the public has no right to demand that the public servant make the details of his private life conform to their ideals so long as the private life is above reproach morally, and President Wilson's private life is all of that.

The people of the United States had, perhaps, in their abundance of affection and esteem appropriated too much of the president.

They had, because of the fact that his public career has met with such universal approval, accepted him in his official life and in doing so had, unconsciously, fallen into the error of demanding that his private life be subject to their criticism in all the detail acts of commission and omission.

During the three trouble crowded years which President Wilson has occupied the post of chief executive of the land, he has been so eminently proper and dignified in his conduct that we have come to believe him capable of the impossible—measuring up to the varying individual standards in his private life.

The public has no concern with the president's intention to marry and no right to criticize him for the conclusion he has reached.

Perhaps, too, we rather like to think of him as a lonely man bowed down with grief and care and would in our selfishness deny him the happiness which is rightfully his to grasp in order that his appropriation by the public be complete.

The president has had enough of grief and care for the people to be generous and wish him his full measure of happiness. Most of them do, but there are a few who cling to the disappointment they feel as a result of the compelling knowledge that President Wilson is to divide the attentions, which have heretofore been given entirely to the public.

The truth about the matter is that those who acknowledge to a feeling of disappointment, are after all but a bit jealous that another has come into the life of the man who has given so much to the cause of the people.

They have no right to feel jealous but jealousy is a natural and not an acquired weakness.

Poetry For Today

AUTUMN ROMANCE.

Were you a leaf gold tinted,
And I a wandering breeze,
We'd daily go a-dying
Where streams are lullabying
Through woods by autumn minted.
To far, old, welcoming seas.
Were you a leaf gold tinted
And I a wandering breeze.

Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree,
Whose gold and crimson treasures
I praised in amorous measures,
My words, however truthful,
Would doubt be by thee,
Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree.

Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen
With serenade of passion
I'd sing September's fashion,
Till, modest green forswearing,
You'd blaze, a brilliant queen,
Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen.

Were I the moon of reaping
And you the ripening grain,
In my blue dome supernal
I'd brew a draft nocturnal
To set the world a-sleeping
And flood your bright domain
With the glory ever sweeping
Round castles fair in Spain.

Judges' Wigs.

The wig is only worn by English barristers to give them a stern, judicial appearance, and no one can say that it fails in this respect. The custom was originated by a French judge in the seventeenth century when, happening to don a marquis' wig one day, he found it gave him such a stern and dignified appearance that he decided to get one for himself and wear it at all times in court. This he did, and the result was so satisfactory from a legal point of view that not only judges, but barristers also, took up the custom throughout Europe.—London Graphic.

A highbrow announces that husbands and wives would be better off if we made divorce more common. Why, it is so common now that a lot of women are afraid to flirt with a stranger for fear he might be a former husband.

A lot of wealthy people get threatening letters because they spend money lavishly, and other wealthy people get threatening letters because they do not spend any money. Ho hum! Us millionaires never could please them there hol poof!

Views of Others

Editor Herald,

Dear Sir:—I read your article of the 6th inst., signed Citizen, with regard to lighting our city and believe he struck the keynote when he said we should own our own lighting plant and I would suggest gas plant also as per agreement that our city council want to contract with our light company for 110,350 candlepower light system for about $13,000 per annum our former contract was for 158,400 candle power for $8,000 per annum which means that the tax payers are to pay $5000 per annum more for 48050 less candle power than we now have (this contract if made to be in force for 10 years) which will mean that the tax payers are to pay out $50,000 more than we are now paying. Would it not be a good idea to have that $50,000 left in the pockets of the tax payers to buy the necessities of life and have a few more lights put up in the suburbs at a nominal price. I should suggest that our council get in communication with some parties who install such plants and we no doubt can put in our own plant at a great saving to the citizens. $130,000 that is now proposed to pay the electric light company in 10 years would go a great way toward paying for the plant and after it is once paid for we could then get our gas and electric light for a very nominal price. That is the system that business men pursue when they find that their power and light is exorbitant. If they pursue the plan that our city dads have in the management of our city affairs for the last few years they would soon be out of business. It has been but a few years since the Ohio Fuel Co. agreed to furnish us natural gas at 25 cents per 1000 feet, the maximum price providing we would bond the city for $40,000 to install the plant and they further agreed to pay us 8 per cent interest on the contract until such time as the entire $40,000 was paid back to the city. The city could have borrowed the money at 4 per cent and by so doing could have paid all interest on bonds and $1,600 on the principal the first year and much more each and every year thereafter and by so doing within a very few years we would have had the bonds all paid and owned the entire gas plant and it would not have cost the tax payers one cent and it would have been a saving to each and every gas consumer of 15 cents per 1000 feet.

In turning down this proposition we showed poor business judgment and it took the combined efforts of two attorneys of our city to defeat the proposition.

In my opinion our city can make a great saving by owning both its gas and electric plants and we would not then be asked by council to raise our tax rate to 2 per cent instead of 1.57 which we are now paying. In my opinion the 2 per cent rate should be voted down by every tax payer in the corporation of our city.

LOOT OF ROBBERS IS TEN MILLIONS?

Held Up Express Train and Looted the Mail Car.

ESCAPE WITH RICH BOOTY

Persistently Reported That Federal Bank Certificates, Amounting to $500,000, Were Taken by the Robbers, Who Perpetrated the Bold Deed in West Virginia—Additional Details of the Holdup.

Wheeling, W. Va., Oct. 9.—The two masked bandits who held up and robbed the Baltimore and Ohio express train en route from New York to St. Louis two miles west of Central, W. Va., have so far eluded the posses who are scouring the countryside for the desperadoes.

One party, which returned to Parkersburg, sixty miles from the scene of the robbery, reported that clothes such as those supposed to have been worn by the men, as well as two revolvers, were found in the country back of Tollgate, where they left the engine and mail car, but there was nothing which might lead to the identity of the men.

Reporters regarding the amount of the loot obtained by the bandits varied. One said that Postmaster Sims Powell of Parkersburg received a telegram advising that federal bank certificates were in the packages stolen from the mail car, but the amount was not specified. Unofficially, the amount has been placed at $500,000.

Local government officials, who have been in touch with the situation, are of the opinion that the bandits were aware that the money which was being sent from Washington was on this train, as it has been definitely learned that they demanded the Washington packages of the mail clerks.

The train was due at Parkersburg at 1 a. m. and it was nearly an hour later when Grant Holmes, the engineer, was attracted by a noise from the tender. Looking over his shoulder, he saw two masked men climbing over the coal, each carrying an automatic shotgun. They called for him not to move, and a minute later he and the firemen were facing the guns.

One of the men ordered Holmes to cut off the engine and through mail car from the remainder of the train and then stood by Holmes, directing the distance he should run it. When two miles to the west had been covered, the highwaymen ordered Holmes to stop and climb down, while the fireman was compelled to do likewise. The other masked man then took the throttle, and, as though well acquainted with the operation of the engine, ran the train a mile or two farther west.

Here the robbers went through the mail car, paying particular attention to the registered mail, which they looted completely and then deserted the train, going across the hills in the direction of the Ohio river. A short time later the engine and mail car were found by a track walker where they had been left.

$10,000,000 the Booty?

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Not less than $100,000 and probably more—maybe as much as $10,000,000—was the amount of loot secured by the bandits who held up Baltimore and Ohio train No. 1 at Central Station, W. Va. This was the opinion expressed by postal officials in Cincinnati, after they had received official reports from Clerk-in-Charge Haines Huff and the other two mail clerks, who were held at bay while the bandits made their escape with ninety-three registered packages containing money shipped from the United States treasury at Washington.

REAL WAR LOOMS UP TO PRINCE

SHOT IN THE ARM
SITTING IN AN INN

Prince of Wales Reported Victim of Jealous Man.

Paris, Sept. 28.—(By Messenger to New York.)—Last week the Prince of Wales, while taking tea in an inn at a British outpost near Ypres, was shot in the arm by a French corporal. The attendant at the inn is an attractive young woman, who was passing as an unmarried girl under the name of Barthou, but as a matter of fact she is married to a corporal in a French Hussar regiment named Huguet. Mme. Barthou had many admirers among the British staff officers, among whom the inn became a popular resort. News of this state of affairs reached the husband, who became furiously jealous. On Saturday last the husband obtained leave from the trenches and he unexpectedly turned up at the inn. The Prince of Wales and another staff officer were having tea in the inn at the moment. Huguet rushed into the room and fired two shots, one at his wife and another at the two staff officers. Then he turned the weapon on himself, wounding himself in the neck. The prince was wounded in the arm just above the wrist. The corporal's wife went to the hospital, where her husband was taken, and is looking after him herself.

Monday is the last discount day on gas and electric light bills.

Lying in a bathtub filled with scalding water, the body of Mrs. Priscilla J. Crownshield of Marblehead, Mass., was found in a Boston hotel.

LOVE HALTS AT DIAMOND

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, arrived here from New York early this afternoon to witness the second game of the world's series baseball championship. Immediately after the game they will go to Washington on a special train.

At the baseball game the president and those with him will occupy a box in the center of the grandstand and the president will throw out the first ball. The president has paid for his baseball tickets himself. He was intensely interested when told that Philadelphia had won the first game of the series, having followed the pennant races in both leagues closely.

The First Game

The first of the world series base ball games has been played and the Philadelphia National league team won fairly and squarely in a clean fast contest.

Base ball luck, that element which always plays an important part in every diamond contest and is at once the hope of the team accredited by experts with being the weaker one and the despair of those experts who would gain reputations as prophets, was present in Friday's contest.

A majority of those who follow the great national game closely favored the chances of the Boston team, although everyone conceded that with the mighty Alexander in the pitcher's box the "Quakers" had a good chance.

Alexander pitched a good game for his team, but nothing sensational. The younger man, Shore, who occupied the center of the diamond for the Boston team pitched, so far as records tell the story, a better game than the veteran Alexander.

But the "luck" that something in the way of a combination of circumstances which makes base ball what it is, was with the veteran and his team won out.

If the public was less interested in Friday's contest than in similar contests of former years it was not apparent in Philadelphia, in Boston, or anywhere else in the United States.

Business and war news were crowded off the wires all over the land while the details of the great struggle for supremacy in the world's cleanest and most wholesome sport was flashed to every news distributing point.

For nearly two hours America forgot war-mad Europe and the sorrows of those across the sea, forgot her own cares and anxieties and surrendered to full enjoyment of the game in all its details.

It's a great game, this base ball, and it is a great thing for a great people and a great nation to enjoy.

The losers in Friday's game may prove winners in the next. So evenly matched are the two great teams that much, if not all, depends on the smile of "luck." It won the first game and perhaps it may win several more. Perhaps, too, "luck" may shift. It often does. That's base ball.

The President to Marry

President Wilson is going to be married in December.

Well, that's all right. Nothing wrong about it but, somehow, the people generally who had placed President Wilson on such a high pedestal of esteem and respect cannot help feeling, on account of his position and in view of all the circumstances, just a little disappointed.

Strictly speaking the public has no right to demand that the public servant make the details of his private life conform to their ideals so long as the private life is above reproach morally, and President Wilson's private life is all of that.

The people of the United States had, perhaps, in their abundance of affection and esteem appropriated too much of the president.

They had, because of the fact that his public career has met with such universal approval, accepted him in his official life and in doing so had, unconsciously, fallen into the error of demanding that his private life be subject to their criticism in all the detail acts of commission and omission.

During the three trouble crowded years which President Wilson has occupied the post of chief executive of the land, he has been so eminently proper and dignified in his conduct that we have come to believe him capable of the impossible—measuring up to the varying individual standards in his private life.

The public has no concern with the president's intention to marry and no right to criticize him for the conclusion he has reached.

Perhaps, too, we rather like to think of him as a lonely man bowed down with grief and care and would in our selfishness deny him the happiness which is rightfully his to grasp in order that his appropriation by the public be complete.

The president has had enough of grief and care for the people to be generous and wish him his full measure of happiness. Most of them do, but there are a few who cling to the disappointment they feel as a result of the compelling knowledge that President Wilson is to divide the attentions, which have heretofore been given entirely to the public.

The truth about the matter is that those who acknowledge to a feeling of disappointment, are after all but a bit jealous that another has come into the life of the man who has given so much to the cause of the people.

They have no right to feel jealous but jealousy is a natural and not an acquired weakness.

Poetry For Today

AUTUMN ROMANCE.

Were you a leaf gold tinted,
And I a wandering breeze,
We'd gaily go a-flying
Where streams are lullabying
Through woods by autumn minted.
To far, old, welcoming seas,
Were you a leaf gold tinted
And I a wandering breeze.

Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree,
Whose gold and crimson treasures
I praised in amorous measures,
My words, however truthful,
Would doubted be by thee,
Were I a sunbeam youthful
And you the guardian tree.

Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen
With serenade of passion
I'd sing September's fashion,
Till, modest green forswearing,
You'd blaze, a brilliant queen,
Were you green garlands wearing
And I the harvest sheen.

Were I the moon of evening
And you the ripening grain,
In my blue dome supernal
I'd brew a draft nocturnal
To set the world a-sleeping
And flood your bright domain
With the glory ever sweeping
Round castles fair in Spain.

Judges' Wigs.

The wig is only worn by English barristers to give them a stern, judicial appearance, and no one can say that it fails in this respect. The custom was originated by a French judge in the seventeenth century when, happening to don a marquis' wig one day, he found it gave him such a stern and dignified appearance that he decided to get one for himself and wear it at all times in court. This he did, and the result was so satisfactory from a legal point of view that not only judges, but barristers also, took up the custom throughout Europe.—London Graphic.

A highbrow announces that husbands and wives would be better off if we made divorce more common. Why, it is so common now that a lot of women are afraid to flirt with a stranger for fear he might be a former husband.

Views of Others

Editor Herald,

Dear Sir:—I read your article of the 6th inst., signed Citizen, with regard to lighting our city and believe he struck the keynote when he said we should own our own lighting plant and I would suggest gas plant also as per agreement that our city council want to contract with our light company for 110,350 candlepower light system for about $13,000 per annum our former contract was for 158,400 candle power for $8,000 per annum which means that the tax payers are to pay $5000 per annum more for 48050 less candle power than we now have (this contract if made to be in force for 10 years) which will mean that the tax payers are to pay out $50,000 more than we are now paying. Would it not be a good idea to have that $50,000 left in the pockets of the tax payers to buy the necessities of life and have a few more lights put up in the suburbs at a nominal price. I should suggest that our council get in communication with some parties who install such plants and we no doubt can put in our own plant at a great saving to the citizens. $130,000 that is now proposed to pay the electric light company in 10 years would go a great ways toward paying for the plant and after it is once paid for we could then get our gas and electric light for a very nominal price. That is the system that business men pursue when they find that their power and light is exorbitant. If they pursue the plan that our city dads have in the management of our city affairs for the last few years they would soon be out of business. It has been but a few years since the Ohio Fuel Co. agreed to furnish us natural gas at 25 cents per 1000 feet, the maximum price providing we would bond the city for $40,000 to install the plant and they further agreed to pay us 8 per cent interest on the contract until such time as the entire $40,000 was paid back to the city. The city could have borrowed the money at 4 per cent and by so doing could have paid all interest on bonds and $1,600 on the principal the first year and much more each and every year thereafter and by so doing within a very few years we would have had the bonds all paid and owned the entire gas plant and it would not have cost the tax payers one cent and it would have been a saving to each and every gas consumer of 15 cents per 1000 feet.

In turning down this proposition we showed poor business judgment and it took the combined efforts of two attorneys of our city to defeat the proposition.

In my opinion our city can make a great saving by owning both its gas and electric plants and we would not then be asked by council to raise our tax rate to 2 per cent instead of 1.57 which we are now paying. In my opinion the 2 per cent rate should be voted down by every tax payer in the corporation of our city.

STIMSON ANNEX TO BE OPENED MONDAY MORNING

First Floor of Handsome Addition to Y. M. C. A. Will Be for Boys and Main Lobby Will Be Used Only By Men.

Monday of the coming week the first floor of the Stimson Annex to the Y. M. C. A. will be formally opened for Y. M. C. A. purposes for the first time, and the room, about 40 by 40 feet, is to be devoted exclusively to the boys, and the main building will thus be freed of the youngsters and the Y. M. C. A. made more attractive and inviting to both men and boys.

The work of preparing the room for the boys has been completed, game tables, reading tables supplied by good literature, and other means of diversion offered.

The boys will be under the control of a Junior Secretary who will be picked to take the place of Junior Secretary Elliott, who leaves for Detroit.

The new room, since being completed, has been occupied by the Episcopal society. The room connects with the main auditorium by a doorway, and within a short time another doorway will be cut through the basement walls.

The new arrangement is one which long has been in demand, and meets with general approval. The change is expected to attract new members, both men and boys.

BLOOMINGBURG STORE IS TAKEN OVER BY SHERIFF

Sheriff Jones, armed with an execution issued by the Logan County common pleas court as the result of judgment in the sum of $966.20, being taken by The Ligonier Carriage Company against A. O. Moore, of Bloomingburg, went to Bloomingburg Friday afternoon and levied upon the Moore general store, appointing Chas. Larrimer and O. W. Creath as appraisers.

The store at the present time is being conducted under the instruction of Sheriff Jones, and Mr. Moore is said to be making arrangements with a view to giving bond and continuing in charge of the business at that place.

The stock of goods carried by the Moore store is said to have a value of $4,000 to $5,000.

HENRY L. HIRE WILL PROBATED

The last will and testament of the late Henry L. Hire of Jefferson township, has been probated, and Attorney E. L. Bush has qualified as executor furnishing bond in the sum of $29,000.

The estate contains some 800 acres of Fayette county's choicest realty, and the deceased had large holdings in other properties.

Frank M. Kimball and Pope Gregg are the witnesses and the instrument was executed more than 16 years ago—July 20, 1899.

Deceased first provides for the payment of all debts, and then gives to his widow during her life time, the home farm of 100 acres in Jefferson township; also another farm of 100 acres; also another of 24 acres; also a tract containing seven acres in addition to all stock, household goods, furniture, bank stock, money, credits and all chattels.

At her death the following division is ordered made: farm of 100 acres goes to a nephew, W. W. Hines and other three tracts above mentioned to a niece, Flora Little. Also to W. W. Hines 62½ acres in Jefferson township, 30 acres in Jefferson son township and 30 acres in same township. Also the sum of $500.

To Flora Little 62½ acres and $500 in money.

To nephew, Glenn Brock, tracts of realty containing 20 acres, 22 acres and 18 acres, in Jefferson township. Also $500 in money.

The sum of $500 each is given to Anna Gordin, Francis Beoddy, Anna Pent, Lillie Pent, Maggie Puckett and William F. Newman.

PIQUA WANTING "ELIAS DENNER"

According to the police, Piqua is very desirous of locating "Elias Denner," relative of John Denner of Bainter murder fame, and the officers of that city have telephoned to Chief Moore asking him to locate the man.

As far as the police have been able to ascertain there has never been an Elias Denner living here, and the Piqua authorities have evidently been placed on the wrong lead.

The authorities of Piqua claim a pal of Denner has been arrested for a jewelry robbery in Piqua, and that he implicated "Elias Denner" said to reside in this city.

LADIES OF G. A. R. ENTERTAIN VETERANS

The G. A. R. veterans of the Col. B. H. Millikan post greatly enjoyed the social afternoon Friday, given in their honor by the Ladies of the G. A. R.

Mrs. Persis McLean and Miss Etha Sturgeon met the veterans at the door and escorted them to seats, while Mrs. Grace Weir played patriotic melodies.

The program was opened by Mrs. Weir singing the soldier's favorite, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground."

Post commander I. N. Rowe, delegate to the National G. A. R. encampment at Washington, D. C., made a most interesting talk on the encampment and Mr. W. D. Blakemore supplemented it from his experiences at the same conclave.

Rev. J. V. Stone, who had been invited as the son of a veteran, responded to a request with a very happy little talk, paying tribute to the comrades and their valiant patriotism.

Everybody joined in singing "America," after which Chaplain Near gave formal dismissal for a delightful social hour with refreshments.

EXECUTIVE SESSION
COUNTY W. C. T. U.

The county W. C. T. U. officers met in executive session at the Welfare Association headquarters Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Taggart, county president, had the meeting in charge and the first hour was spent in stamping temperance literature for immediate distribution.

A motion authorizing the printing of more Fayette county cook books carried. Owing to the increased cost price the selling price will be 50c each.

Business was transacted and Mr. M. E. Hitchcock, chairman of the county dry committee, outlined a plan of temperance work for the coming year. Mrs. Taggart urged W. C. T. U. women everywhere to observe the noon hour prayer.

Mrs. Alice Adams closed the meeting with prayer.

GREAT HALLOWE'EN
PAGEANT PLANNED

As usual during the past three or four years, a big Halloween celebration will be held this year, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and all expecting to take part in the parade and performances will soon be planning their costumes for the affair.

The celebration, as usual, will be open to everyone, and several hundred persons will be in line. It is expected that many elaborate and carefully planned costumes will be a feature of the celebration.

MORE THAN 6000 HAWKS SLAUGHTERED

In four months time the number of hawks slaughtered in the Buckeye State for the bounty of $1 per head, was 6000.

This announcement has been made by General John C. Speaks, chief game warden of the state.

The hawks allowed killed and for which bounties are paid are: Chicken hawk, American goshawk, blue hawk, Copper hawk, and sharp shinned or duck hawk.

BACHERT'S GARAGE SECURES AGENCY FOR DODGE CAR

All Local Sales Rights for Popular and Much Sought After Car Are Granted to Market Street Dealer.

Twenty Thousand Dodge Cars Sold in First Six Months—Remarkable Record of Popularity.

Yesterday, confirming the appointment of Bachert's Garage as local dealers for Dodge Brothers in Washington C. H. and vicinity.

Just a year ago, Dodge Brothers, who had been manufacturing the vital parts for more than 500,000 motor cars, announced that they would soon market a car bearing their own name. Today over 20,000 satisfied purchasers of Dodge Brothers' cars are driving their machines daily and obtaining the utmost in satisfaction.

"Dealers and owners have now had a year in which to judge the car and it goes without saying that the public has set its stamp of approval on this popular priced car. Not only has the factory been oversold from the very beginning, but even today, when the first rush might be expected to be over, we have three purchasers for every car we can get.

"In bringing out their new car Dodge Brothers set an entirely new standard for the popular priced field. Accustomed to securing imitation leather and careless workmanship in low-priced cars, the motoring public was agreeably surprised to find genuine leather upholstery, excellent springs and up-to-the minute equipment on the new Dodge Brothers' car. We feel that every sale of a car means an additional booster and are preparing for the biggest season in the history of our business."

Dodge Brothers' new automobile is a real car in every particular. Freakish design has been carefully avoided and the beautiful stream-line body is combined with a powerful 20-25 horsepower motor, to make an ideal car for five passengers. It is a big roomy car in every sense of the word, having a wheelbase of 110 inches and wheels 32 by 3 1/2 inches. The motor is cast en bloc and has a bore of 3 7/8 inches and a stroke 4 1/2 inches. Electric lighting and starting apparatus is included, and the equipment in every way suggests the car of $2,000 rather than one of $785, the price which Dodge Brothers have made. Real leather upholstery and the latest type of self-lubricating springs makes the car one of the easiest riding machines that has ever been marketed. Among the unusual features on the car is the speedometer drive, which is connected directly to the transmission and is, therefore, practically trouble proof. The arrangement of the transmission gears is also a novel one, no gears except the third being in operation when the car is driven on direct drive.

In Social Circles

Honoring Mrs. Michael S. Creamer of Los Angeles, Cal., Misses Charlotte and Nina Dahl gave a charming three table Bridge, Friday evening.

A delicious luncheon accompanied by artistic decorations of white and green was served. A feature of the luncheon was a "Hallowe'en pie"
from which each guest drew a favor.

Mrs. Creamer was presented with a beautiful cluster of pink roses.

The guests were Mesdames Creamer,
Mrs. C. H. Griffiths, Frank L. Stutson, Bertha S. Miller, Fuller Hess, G.
L. Spragg, Pearce Ballard, C. Graham Beckel, Misses Janet Stutson and Lavin Cockerill, Emily Tanzey.

Mrs. M. S. Daugherty and Mrs. H.
E. Daugherty entertained Friday afternoon at a Bridge of exceptionally beautiful appointments, in compliment to their guest, Mrs. Creamer of Uniontown, Pa.

A profusion of flowers graced the handsome home and an elaborate collation followed the game. Corsage bouquets were the favors.

Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. W. W. Westerfield, of New Orleans, La.; Mrs. Clark Story of Chillicothe and daughter Mrs.

Pattison of Washington, Pa.; Mrs.
Otis Story of Chillicothe, Miss Louise
Baer of Columbus.

Mrs. George Jackson and daughter
Miss Emma, extended the hospitality of their home for the first meeting of the Study Class, Friday afternoon.

There was a large attendance and much interest in the study opened under the leadership of Mrs. Wm.
Boynton Gage.

Afternoon tea was served and the social features enjoyed.

Miss Margaret Mark gives an informal baked bean supper Sunday evening for Miss Sarah Baker, who leaves Monday for her new home in Columbus.

The additional guests will be Misses Marguerite Conner, Mable Cat-well, Dorothy Doster, Chester Murphy, of Greenfield, Ronald Dick and Ralph Mayer.

Miss Regina McDonald opened a private dancing class for the Junior set, Friday night at the I. G. O. F.
Hall. The little coterie enjoyed the first lesson and the class promises to be a pleasurable event.

Miss Jane Paul furnished excellent piano music.

my dearly beloved husband Milton C.
Marchant, who passed away October
10, 1914.

One long year today since my husband passed away. Only God knows how I miss him. God called him home. It was His will but in my heart he lingers still. His memory is as dear today, as in the hour he pass-

The Midland division of the B.
& O. S. W. railroad may be equipped with telephones for dispatching trains, beginning sometime next year, according to unofficial information.

At the present time telephones are being installed throughout the main line of the road, and it is believed that next year the same method will be used on the local division for handling the business of the road.

DIRECTORS ARE PRONE TO TALK

New York, Oct. 9.—The affairs of the new Midvale Steel and Ordnance company are being rapidly rounded into shape under the driving activity of William Ellis Corey, its president. Alva C. Dinkley, its vice president, and several of the directors, who are operating men. A meeting of a number of the directors was held and informal conferences were continued, centering about Mr. Corey's office.

The announcement from Washington that Attorney General Gregory would scrutinize the combination did not slacken the efforts of the leaders of the new corporation. Officers and directors were emphatic in their statements that they were so positive that the amalgamation was entirely within the law that the attorney general's announcement caused them not the shadow of worry as to the legality of the enterprise. The matter had been examined from all points by counsel for the company and directors had been advised before proceeding that the company was a lawful one.

SERBIA DECLARES WAR ON BULGARIA

London, Oct. 9.—Serbia has declared war on Bulgaria, according to a report received at Geneva. A dispatch received from Nish, while not mentioning any definite declaration of war, corroborated the Swiss report to the extent of announcing that the Bulgarian minister at Nish has received his passports.

OFFICIAL ACCUSED

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Irregularities totaling $56,719 are charged against Canton officials, city employees, contractors and supply firms in a report made to the state bureau of accounting by Examiner William E. Heck. It covers the period from December, 1913, to April, 1914.

DRY PLAN FOR 1916 LAUNCHED

WANT LIQUOR ISSUE REFERRED TO STATES

Drys Would Have Congress Take Question Out of Politics.

Columbus, Oct. 9.—In the hope of preventing the wet and dry fight in 1916 from having a political appearance, the Anti-Saloon League of America purposes to urge the Sixty-fourth congress to put through a resolution submitting to the several states a national prohibition amendment.

A resolution to this effect was adopted by the national legislative committee and officers of the league in session here. It was pointed out that it would be good strategy to secure submission at the hands of the incoming congress, since that would refer the question back to the several states for action, and not bring the prohibition fight directly into contact with the national election. It was decided to press for a vote on the resolution for submission of national prohibition at the earliest possible date in congress.

Congressman Hobson of Alabama, who was present, expressed his approval of the steps taken.

TAKES POISON

New York, Oct. 9.—Perthuis Moser of Wilmington, Del., ended four days spent along Broadway with a handsome, attractive woman by taking thirty grains of bichloride of mercury and two grains of morphine at the Hotel Marlborough, where he and the woman had been staying. Moser is in New York hospital with slim chances of recovery. The woman was allowed to leave the hotel and her whereabouts is not known.

STATE BOARD QUESTIONED

Columbus, Oct. 9.—Because the members of the state board of agriculture were named prior to the time when the law creating them became effective and under a repealed statute, Auditor of State Donahay holds they were not properly named. The board now is only a de facto body, the auditor holds, in a letter to the governor, and should be renamed in order to properly qualify as legal officials. Mr. Donahay says that unless the members are legally appointed he will refuse to pay any more of their per diem salaries and expense bills.

LOST IN WRECK

Upper Sandusky, O., Oct. 9.—John Tilton, a wealthy stockman of this city, was killed, and Alfred Walton, a prominent resident of Sycamore, seriously injured in a railroad wreck between Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Monroe, Ind. They were returning from Chicago.

IRISH DENY WILD STORY

New York, Oct. 9.—Several of 246 young Irishmen, in their teens, who arrived in the steerage of the American liner New York were reported to have said at quarantine that they had received $100 each and free passage to this port from Liverpool by agents of the German government in Ireland, who said Germany wanted to prevent the Irish enlisting for the war. After the New York docked not one of the Irish immigrants would admit that the story told at quarantine and repeated by the ship's officers was true.

WOULD STAMP OUT GLANDERS

Cincinnati, Oct. 9.—Health Officer Landis and Chief Food Inspector R. B. Blume took drastic measures to check the spread of glanders among horses in Hamilton county. Dr. Blume ordered shot every horse showing symptoms of the disease. The outbreak, he says, is due to the sale of circus horses at Milford recently. Forty cases have developed since then.

CHICAGO TO BE VERY DRY

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The police will have little to do Sunday in enforcing the saloon closing order, according to word which came from the liquor interests. Word went forth to the 7,152 saloonkeepers to "clamp the lid on tight," for the purpose giving Chicagoans a real taste of what the order means. Plans were begun for a demonstration of the so-called personal liberty element, probably a parade, on Sunday.

LONGFELLOW'S HOME.

Craigie House Is to Be Preserved For Use of the Public.

Longfellow's home, Craigie House, in Cambridge, is to be preserved for the public. Several months ago, says the Boston Transcript, it was learned from the filing of the will of Mrs. Richard Henry Dana (Edith Longfellow Dana), daughter of the poet, the surviving heirs agreed to intrust the house to three trustees, together with a sum of money for upkeep, for a triple purpose: (1) "As a specimen of the best colonial architecture of the eighteenth century;" (2) "As a historical monument of the occupation of the house by George Washington during the siege of Boston in the Revolutionary war;" (3) "As a memorial to Henry Wordsworth Longfellow."

Longfellow heirs may live in the house by paying rent. When the time comes that no surviving heir wishes to do that the mansion is to be managed solely as a memorial "for the benefit of the public." Thus, definitely and without further action, Craigie House is placed forever among the state's public monuments to art and patriotism and to celebrate equally one who pleaded for justice, humanity and, particularly, the beautiful.

Natural Pillows.

The pollack tree provides the natives of British Honduras with splendid material for pillows and mattresses. It is a common soft wood growth with a large pear shaped fruit, which has a hard shell, changing to almost black when ripe, and containing a short staple brown fluff or silk fiber. The fluff is about a quarter of an inch long, more like the finest of camel's hair than fiber, and is used extensively for filling pillows and mattresses. It will not become hard, even after years of service. The natives occasionally expose it to the sunlight for a day or two and put it back as good as ever.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Danger in Hot Drinks.

Cancer on the surface, where it can be observed, never begins as cancer, but results from other sores or breaks in the skin or tissues. Especially does there seem to be a close relation between burns and cancer. Dr. W. J. Mayo points to the fact that locomotive engineers often have cancer of the leg from the heat of the furnace and that in other occupations cancer is most common where heat is applied to the body. "I cannot get it out of my head," said he, "that the cause of much cancer of the stomach is the drinking of hot drinks." Many people drink fluids too hot to be held in the mouth. The stomach cannot get rid of such scalding drinks and must suffer actual burns.

SERBIANS SCORE AGAINST ENEMY

Rout a Teutonic Force That Crossed Near Belgrade.

ENGAGED AT OTHER POINTS

Berlin, However, Announces Progress In the Great Drive at Serbia, Claiming That the Movement Across the Border is Proceeding Favorably. Greece Expected to Maintain Neutrality—Operations On All Fronts.

London, Oct. 9.—The advance guard of the Teutons which crossed the Danube at Belgrade has been partly destroyed and partly captured, and those who entered Serbian territory across the Save have met with heavy losses, according to an official dispatch received by the Serbian legation here from Nish. Berlin, however, announces progress in the great drive at Serbia, declaring that the movement of the Teutonic forces across the Danube, Save and Drina rivers is proceeding favorably.

The Serbian dispatch reads: "The advance guard of the enemy which crossed at the Belgrade fortress has been partly destroyed and partly captured. At Yarak, Zarez and the Isle of Progaraska, after several fierce attacks, the enemy has been pinned to the very brink of the river with enormous losses. At the other crossing points the struggle continues. At Belgrade two officers and over 100 soldiers were captured."

A dispatch from Paris says the Bulgarian minister to France has been given his passports.

The Anglo-French force which was landed at Salonica is making its way northward to assist the Serbs and to protect Macedonia from a threatened Bulgarian invasion.

The landing of British and French troops is proceeding despite the change in the Greek government. The ministers of the entente powers at Athens have asked Greece to define her policy with regard to the Balkan situation, but the new premier, Alexander Zaimis, has answered that he will be unable to do this until a meeting of the cabinet is held. There is, however, evidence that Greece will maintain a policy of benevolent neutrality toward the allies.

Allied fleets already are reported off Bulgarian ports in the Aegean and Black seas and in view of the possibility of a Russian landing on the Black sea coast of Bulgaria, it is stated that a Turkish army is being sent there so that the Bulgars will not be called upon to fight their old friends and protectors.

What assistance Italy will lend her allies in the new venture forced upon them in the Balkans is not disclosed, nor has any change in the policy of Roumania been announced.

A renewed offensive by the allies on the western front has not yet materialized, the recent French attacks in Champagne and Artois apparently having been simply local attempts to capture points of vantage, which brought about furious German counterattacks. This is particularly true of the attack against the hill of Taure, in the center of the German lines in Champagne, which has been almost continuously under German fire since its capture by the French.

A somewhat similar situation seemingly has arisen on the eastern front. The Germans several times have shown signs of developing a big attack against Hvinsh, but beyond gaining a few yards of trenches they have made no progress, while from that region right down to Galicia the Austro-Germans have been engaged in meeting strong Russian attacks.

How To Vote

Acts of the Fifty first General Assembly Ordered, by referendum Petition, to be Submitted to the Electors of the State.

FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 710 (THE SPRAGUE ACT) (CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTING BILL)

AN ACT to amend section 4828-1 of the General Code, making an apportionment of the state of Ohio into congressional districts under the thirteenth census of the United States.

AGAINST HOUSE BILL NO. 710. (THE SPRAGUE ACT) (CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTING BILL)

AN ACT to amend section 4828-1 of the General Code making an apportionment of the state of Ohio into congressional districts under the thirteenth census of the United States.

FOR AMENDED SENATE BILL NO. 307. (THE McDERMOTT ACT)

AN ACT to provide for license to traffic in intoxicating liquors and to further regulate the traffic therein, and to amend sections 1261-16, 1261-17, 1261-18, 1261-19, 1261-20, 1261-21, 1261-24, 1261-33, 1261-40, 1261-41, 1261-43, 1261-46, and 1261-47 of the General Code.

AGAINST AMENDED SENATE BILL NO. 307. (THE McDERMOTT ACT)

AN ACT to provide for license to traffic in intoxicating liquors and to further regulate the traffic therein, and to amend sections 1261-16, 1261-17, 1261-18, 1261-19, 1261-20, 1261-21, 1261-24, 1261-33, 1261-40, 1261-41, 1261-43, 1261-46, and 1261-47 of the General Code.

The constitution of the state provides that for the use of the electors in a referendum election on an act of the General Assembly, the Secretary of State shall so prepare the ballots as to permit of an affirmative and a negative vote.

It will be noticed that the ballot to be voted in the referendum election on the congressional gerrymander bill and the McDermott liquor license bill is so prepared. The voters, therefore, in the referendum election will NOT find a ballot permitting them to vote "yes" or "no."

If therefore, the elector desires to vote against the gerrymander law—desires that the congressional districts of Ohio remain as they are now,—he should place his 'cross' mark in the space to the left of the second division opposite the words "against House bill No. 170."

If the voter desires the congressional districts changed from their present form he should place his cross mark in the space to the left of the first subdivision on the ballot and opposite the words "For House bill No. 170."

The same rules should be observed in voting on the McDermott act.

If the voter desires the new liquor license law to obtain he should place his cross mark in the space to the left of the third sub-division on the ballot opposite the words "For Amended Senate bill No. 307."

If the voter desires the present liquor license law retained unchanged he should place his "cross" mark in the space to the left of the last subdivision on the ballot and opposite the words "Against Amended Senate bill No. 307."

By marking FOR either of the bills mentioned on the ballots the voter expresses his desire for the new law.

By marking the ballot AGAINST either one of the bills mentioned the voter expresses a desire to retain the present law.

a wide cure, fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Barry tossed out Mayer and also tossed out Scott, taking the ground away back on the grass. Bancroft singled to right center. Speaker made a nice play on the ball and almost nipped Bancroft who overran the bag. Gardner threw out Paskert. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Seventh Inning — Barry singled sharply to left. Thomas forced Barry at second. Mayer to Bancroft to Niehoff and Foster singled to left, Thomas going to second. Janvrin ran for Thomas and Hooper scratched an infield hit filling the bases. Hendricks batting for Scott popped out to Luderus. No runs, three hits, no errors.

Cady went in to catch for Boston and Janvrin took Scott's place at shortstop. Cravath fanned on three pitched balls and Luderus fled out to Hooper. Whitted fouled out to Cady. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning — Speaker went out Luderus to Mayer and Hoblitzel fled out to Cravath. Bancroft threw out Lewis at first, spearing the ball with his gloved hand as it was bounding over the second bag and then making a line throw to first. It was a sparkling play. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Gardner threw out Niehoff, another brilliant play, shutting off a sure hit. Barns popped out to Janvrin and Mayer fled to Speaker. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning — Gardner singled to left and Barry fled out to Paskert. Janvrin went out, Mayer to Luderus on a close play, Gardner going to second. Gardner scored on Foster's single to center and Foster went to second on the throw to the plate. Hooper fanned. One run, two hits, no errors.

The band played the Star Spangled Banner and the President and the crowd stood up with bared heads while the players doffed their hats. Stock flew out to Lewis; Bancroft struck out. Paskert fled to Speaker, ending the game. No runs, no hits, no errors.

PURCHASES LARGE TRACT OIL LANDS

Washington friends will be interested in the following clipping from a Tulsa, Okla., paper: "Mr. George B. Swope, of Springfield, Ohio, has recently purchased the fee of the one hundred and sixty acres in the southeast quarter of 3221913, Southeast of Tulsa, Okla. The land and royalty was purchased from the allottee Elan Orchutt for a consideration said to be about $10,000.

"The land contains 17 wells, with about 50 barrels per day production and operated by the March Oil Co."

Monday is the last discount day on gas and electric light bills.

CHANGES MADE IN WILMINGTON PAPERS

Two important changes have taken place in the Wilmington, Ohio, newspapers, the Herald, which was issued daily for a few weeks but was discontinued, having been leased by W. J. Galvin, of Jamestown, according to reports from Wilmington, and the Journal-Republican, one of the best weekly newspapers published in the state in a town the size of Wilmington has announced that beginning at once the Journal will be issued twice each week.

The other newspaper published in Wilmington is the Clinton County Democrat.

ASPHALT STREETS PROVING POPULAR

With the completion and opening of two sections of asphalt street in this city, local citizens are expressing a preference for asphalt paving for residential streets.

It is claimed that a majority of property owners on both Columbus avenue and Paint street, which will be paved next spring, favor asphalt. On Main street and Hinde street many of the property owners are in favor of brick paving at least over that portion where heavy hauling to and from the railroads is greatest.

AT THE EMPIRE

The Irma Stock Company which comes to the Empire Theater next week, are playing to capacity houses nightly in Wilmington this week. It's only a verification of the old saying, "the show a little better and a little different from the other fellows, gets the business." Their plays are all new and put on in a manner entirely different from the usual traveling stock companies, in fact it is more like witnessing one of the big road productions, every attention is paid to detail and none of those haphazard, slip shod methods are resorted to.

The management believing the public would rather see the promise of an actor than the ruin of one, has taken special pains to engage only young and competent players to support their leading lady, Miss Irma Wikoff, that their selection was a happy one is proven by the quality of the performances given and the unstinted praise of press and public. Their opening play, "Just Plain Molly," affords the little lady an excellent opportunity, as it is a happy blending of pathos and smiles. Mr. Howard Wysong, the leading man, is a most excellent foil and the two working as they do, supported by the entire cast affords an evening's entertainment long to be remembered.

Reserved seats on sale at Leland's and one lady will be admitted free on Monday night when accompanied by one paid reserved seat ticket.
